Governon's Message. The message of Gov. ture, yesterday at noon, and we give it to our renders in this morning's Volunteer. In our next we shall speak of its merits.

THE WAR :-- STARTLING FACTS: Prior to the commencement of hostilities between Mexico and the United States, says the Bedford Gazelle, no class of men were as clamorous for war as the Federal Whigs! They could see in the Mexican nation every thing that was vile and influences, and taunted the President for being so slow to redress our wrongs at the Cannon's mouth and the point of the Bayonet. But, so soon as Condress declared, by an almost unanimous vote, that war existed between the United States' and Mexico, BY THE ACT OF MEXICO, and instructed the President to prosecute it to an honorable peace, the Federal Whigs began to plead the cause of the ENEMY and denounce their own government, thus inviting the Mexicans to treat our brave Volunteers and Regulars to "Boody hands and hospitable graves" wherever they met them.—Our Army has been victorious or every Buttle-Field and an honorable peace would have been made year ago had it not been for the. JUSTICE:

From the New Orleans papers of the 22d. LATER FROM MEXICO.

Mexico, Dec. 10, 1847. Yesterday the train under the command of Gen. Ewiggs left for Vera Cruz. This is the second train that has left here for the United States, since that here is the builty Amarican areas, but this, unlike the first, goes down with almost the certainty of reaching the cost in safety; before all was don't was doubt.

Gen. Twiggs, the commander of the train, is too well known as a fighting general, for the greasers willingly to attack him, unless, indeed, they were in overwhelming numbers, and the hope of plunder might be too much for them, but I dare prophesy, if their temerity should carry them so far, they will get more licks than coppers.

tenerity should carry them so tur, they will get more licks than coppers.

The Monitor of yesterday publishes a decree from Senor Rosa, the Minister of Justice and Ecclesiastical Affairs, profesting against the sale of church property in this city, except for the benefit of the Mexican Government and the Church. You will be a chart time against the city and military. reculect that a short time ago the civit and military Governor prohibited the sale of any of his property, except by permission of the Government of the U. States, and Rosa's decree scens to be intended to counteract the effect of this prohibition. He, Rosa, pronounces all such sales invalid and of no effect, and creeks wearnly on the shibet.
