We do not approve of the mothod, however; a resolution disaproving of his conduct and requesting him to resign, passing that hody, would have more weight and fluence in the political world.

CAPT. W. F. SMALL'A RESOLUTIONS.—We rejoice that the resolutions in favor of the war with Mexico, John Heverling, Jr., to Miss Mandarer Moday, both have been effered in the Sonate of Pennsylvania, by the gallant SMALL, just returned from hard service in the gallan Mexico, and covered with laurels won in the midst of peril. It is a pleasing and a significant spectacle, and it shows that the soldier who has done his duty abroad, is not ready to sustain the men who denour the war, when he returns to his home.

Adrew, of Carlisle, Pa., late a student in the Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey, in the 23d year of this uge. To the eye of sense the death that we now record is fraught with peculiar circumstances of sadness. It is one of those deaths that seem like a withering frost in the early spring, blasting the bud of many a fine and glorious promise. He was young, and gifted with an intellect of a high order; and having enjoyed the advantage of a fine education he bid nex exect upon week and fanatical minds, a dissolution of the Union may be effected, and himself de clared disputor of Mexico.
