In a letter to Captain the s

complaint and accusation, could imagine that anything like a robuke was contained in this extract; yet on this substantial basis alone rests the charge, ever and over again presented, that you were rebuked by the War Department for discharging the prisoners captured at Cerro Gordo. If, in a case where it was so easy to be right, and so difficult to get wrong, you could fall into such an obvious mistuke, what may not be expected from you in other matters where your perverted feelings have as free and a wider range?

The state of the state and the state of the

If more was wanted, cumulative proof might be drawn from the same source—your own correspondence—to show not only that this charge against me has no foundations, in relation to everything connected with the same source—your own correspondence—to show not only that this charge against me has no foundations, in relation to everything connected with the stions, in relation to everything connected with the war, have characterized the action of each of these subordinate departments. As a commendation justly metited by these several brainches of the department, assalled as they are indirectly by you, I see no good the sufficient reasons I have assigned, sent out in ballast from the Atlantic cities, yet a very large number were sent thence with stores, supplies and troops, to coperate in the expedition.

In Gen. Jesup's letter, to me of the 17th instant, a copy of which is sent herewith, he states that fifty, three ships, bareness high subspaces were sent thence with the states that fifty three ships, bareness high subspaces were sent thence with stores, and of the subspace of the departments.
