We have at length the exquisite pleasure of an We have at length the exquisite pleasure of an-nouncing to our countrymen the ratification of the treaty, and the establishment of peace between Mex-ico and the United States. We are satisfied that we proclaim no intelligence that would diffuse greater joy throughout our country—not peace only, but an honorable and an advantageous peace—as the result of one of the most brilliant ware that ever advance or one of the most brilliant wars that ever addraed the annuls of any nation. The President declared that he would prosecute the war until we could "conquer peace"—an honorable peace. We have reached this result, and we cordially congratulate the country upon it.—Washington Union.

Return of Volunteers.

WASHINGTON, June 11. WASHINGTON, June 11.

An official order has been issued for the withdrawal of the volunteers from Mexico; and measures are being adopted to transport them as near to their homes as circumstances will permit. The Massachusetts regiment will be landed at Boston, the N. York and New Jorsey regiments at Fort Hamilton, the first Pennsylvania regiment at Philadelphia, and the other at Pittsburg. Arrangements have also been matured for their prompt payment and hondruble discharge. The old regiments of the regular army will next ombark; the first and second regiment of artillery are to assemble at Governor's Island.

NEW YORK: Fireact of a lettler from a distinguished Democra n New York:

"We shall sweep New York as certainly as w shall Pennsylvania. I never saw so much onthusiasm as is manifested for Gen. Cass." DEATH OF PROF. CALDWELL

It is with deep regret we announce the death Prof. Caldwell reached our borough. Thus, within a few days of each other has death snatched from Dickinson College two Professors who had labored so zealously, and with so much honor to themselves in behalf of the Institution. Prof. C. was a native of Maine, and a graduate of Bowdin College. Ho was a man of true piety, and his death has caused the tear of sorrow to moisten the eye of many citizens of Carlello.
