THE VOLUNTEER. John B. Bratton; Editor and Proprietor. CARLISLE, THURSDAY, JUNE 39, 1848.

AGENCY. ICV. B. PALMEB, Esq. is our authorized Agent for pro-curing advertisements, receiving subscriptions and makin collections for the American Folusteer, at hi office, N. W • mer of Third and Chosaus attrets, Philadelphia.

FOR PRESIDENT. GEN. LEWIS CASS. Of Michigan.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WILLIAM O. BUTLER. Of Kanlucky.

DEBOORATIC ELECTORIAL TICKET. Senatorial Electors. WILLIAM BIGLER, of Clearfield. DAVID D. WAGENER, of Northampton. Representative Electors.

Dist. Warn : Dist: Dist: C Th

Henry L. Benner,	13. John C. King,
Horn R. Kneass,	14. John Weidman,
Isaac Shunk,	15. Robert J. Fisher,
A. L. Ronmfort,	16. Fredrick Smith,
Jacob S. Yost,	17. John Criswell,
Robert E. Wright,	18. Charles A. Black,
Wm. W. Downing.	19. Geo. W. Bowman,
Henry Haldeman,	20. John R. Shannon,
Peter Kline,	21. Geo. P. Hamilton,
B: S. Schoonover,	22. William H. Davis,
Wm. Swelland,	23. Timothy Ives,
Jonah Brewstor.	24. Jas. G. Campbell.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, ISRAEL PAINTER. Of Westmoreland County

Democratic Meeting. THE Democrats of the Borough of Carlisle, re requested to meet at BEETEM'S HOTEL, on SATURDAY EVENING NEXT, at early can-dio light. Turn out Democrate, turn out! MANY DEMOCRATS.

o the June 29, 1848.

T By permission of Divine Providence, preaching may be expected at the Market house on Sunday evening next, at 7 o'clock.

THE FOURTH. The Democratic citizens of Cumberland county will celebrate the day at Holcomb's Grove, in this Borough Dinner to be served at 12 o'clock precise. ly. We hope all our Democratic friends will unite in the celebration. Ample arrangements have been made, and it is expected that there will be a sweeping turn-out of the Domocracy of Old Mother Cum-berland. Gen. Houston, and Hon. D. S. KAUFMAN. of Texas, Hon. JESSE MILLER, Secretary of State, Col. What an attitude is the "great Whig party" placed REAR FRAZER, the "war horse" of Lancaster, and in ! What dishonesty, what a base truckling to perhaps the Hon. GEORGE W. BARTON, of Philadelnhia, will be present to address the assombluge. We once more say to our friends-come one, come all! COMMENCEMENT.

DICKINSON COLLEGE .- The examination of classes will commence on Thursday, July 6. On Sunday, July 9, a funeral discourse on the death of Professor CALDWELL, will be pronounced by the Rev. B. H. NADAL, chaplain of the college. "The Sophomoro exhibition will take place in th college chapel on Tuesday evening, July 11, at 71 o'clock, P. M.

On Wednesday an address will be delivered befo the Belles Lettres Society, at 11 o'clock, A, M., by Taylor, let him bear in mind that in doing so he mus the Hon. CHARLES GIBBONS ; a culogy on Dr. EMORY, at 5 o'clock P. M., by Professor McCLINTOCH ; and of the United States, voled against refunding the fine at 74 P. M., an address before the G. U. P. Society imposed upon the patriot Jackson, by the notoriou by Rev. S. M. Vall, and a poem by P. R. Lovziov, Judge Hall, at New Orleans. We do not believe Esq. The exercises of commencement will held on Thursday July 13, at 10 o'clock A. M. The doors will be opened at 61 A. M. Children will not be admitted unless accompanied by their friends.

GEN. HOUSTON COMING: By the following letter from Gen. Houston, it will principles—we ask them to read the following from The second that he will contained be with me or the first second the following from The second that he will contained be with me or the first second the following from The second that he will contained be with me or the first second the following from the first second terms and the following from the first second terms are second to the following from the first second terms are second to the first second terms are second terms are second to the first second terms are second te be seen that he will certainly be with us on the 4th- his petition for their nomination, issued on the 11th Let our democratic friends of the different townships attend the celebration, and unite in giving a hearty prospects : wolcome to the great hero of San Jacinto, and to the other distinguished gentlemen who will be here on that occasion SENATE CHAMBER, 20th June, 1848.

Gentlemen-I thank you for the very flattering invitation with which you have been pleased to com-pliment me to be present at a National Celebration on the 4th of July proximo.

I am most happy to accept the invitation, and will attend on the occasion. I am gentlemen, with great respect,

"A great man has fallon in Israel."

THE WHIGS HAVE "SURRENDERED." More in surrow, certainly, than in anger, says the The Foderal papers in the support of Gen. Taylor to pursuing a very strange course. Cowardly abuse Lancastor Intelligencer, do we chronicle the political f Gen. Cass, is about the only political feature in self-destruction of a man, who from the heights of heir columns. When Henry Clay, the "embodi- fame has suddenly plunged into the deepest abyss of nent" of Federalism, was the bandidale of that par- shame and humiliation. To the infinite amazoniunt ty, we hourd a great deal said about the "glorious of our entire community, the Eastern mail of Satur-principles of the Whig party." We were then told day brought us the intelligence, that the factions and that the salvation of the country was identified with disorganizing. " Barnburner " 'Convention of New the success of "Whig principles." But, how York had nominated for the Presidency ho less a changed! The Federal papers at present are silent man than MARTIN VAN BUREN, and that he had actuas the grave. We hear nothing about "Whig prin- ally accepted the nomination ? Certain it is, that he ciples" now. By common consent they have aban addressed a letter to that noted body, taking ground oned their principles; and although they a few adverse to the regular nominations of the Democrat. months since denounced the war with Mexico as is party made at Baltimore, and it is our custom in ng but the glories of the battle-field, and the admi-

If our regrets over the apostacy of those in wh rable munner in which Gen. Taylor put the Mexicans to death. Gen. Taylor, their candidate for President, fidelity we had implicitly relied, be graduated by the measures of their descension, then will the Democras ashamed to acknowledge that he will be governed by Whig principles, in case of his election, and his by deeply deplore the step which ferever separates from riends take the hint and remain mum on all political them their ancient leader-the Sage of Lindenwald. ubjects. Ask a Whig the question-" What will be Sorry spectacle ! Here we behold a man raised by a great party from obscurity to fame and fortune done with the Tariff, should Taylor be elected ?" the inswer will bo "a little more grape, Capt. Bragg !" conored and carressed, because believed to be a faithanswer win bo a mits more grape, our a set of the principles of the principles and who simulated on the Bank quastion, the Public Lands, the Sub by unchastened ambition, morbid pride, selfish reby unchastened ambition, morbid pride, selfish re-Treasury, &c., &c., and his answer will be, "Gen. venge for fancied ill, or some other grovelling pas-Taylor never surrenders !" Ask him, why it is that sion-in the hour of need ungratefully turns his principles, and says they must take him independent times barnbarners.

the Whigs have abandoned the principles to which back upon the very usages, by which he has so long they professed attachment, and you will receive a himself flourished and prospered. Truly a mourn "hurrah for Gen. Taylor" for the answer. And ful exhibition of human infirmity ! / Little did the thus it is to the end of the chapter. You might as Democracy anticipate such conduct from such a quar well try to hold an cel by the tail as to get a direct ter. Little did they apprehend, when in 1836 and 1840 they rallied by tens of thousands under the reply from a Taylor Whig of the present day. The Whig Party is based solely upon principle, nd must live or die with it. The Whig party will riumph with its principles, but would prefer defeat o the sacrifice of any truth or any daty. It lives anner of this mun, that he would thus soon forget the gratitude due to the glorious past; and cover him-Andrew Jackson say, if he were yet in our midst to witness this defection? In tones of indiguato the saterines of any futil of any of the saterines of any futil of any of the saterines in the name, of no human being; its principles are indestructible, and while the people remain true to themselves, it can continue to triumph without borrowing its victories from the prejudices of any faction or the power of any individual. Phila. North Ame. July 16, 1847. tioh that would thrill throughout the length an breadth of the land, he would rebuke and de

It is a source of heartfelt satisfaction, however The above extract appeared in the N. American that the principles of the great Democratic party dehe great organ of Federalism in Philadelphia, not pend not upon names, however honored and illustriquite one year ago. Strange to say this same North ous. Selfish and ungrateful men, the slaves of pasbus. Sclish and ungruteut men, the same a particular hands against the party that here particidal hands against the party that here particidal hands against the party that here particidal hands periode at the party that here particidal hands against the party that here particidal hands are periode at the mist the particidal hands are the particidal hands the particidal hands and there and the mist telearch from my eyes by the future of the particidal hands and truckling course parsued by the late Whigh the country, he will add but another to its many and striking exemplifications, and history, which distances and the assigned him a place with Jerranson and Jackson, to day entols his name of the page that records the apostacy of WM. C. RIVES and NATHANEL P. TALMADEL' Like a bright exhants the synome of political infimity and treachery. The so information and secure the idea that the free dat the synome of political infimity and treachery. The so information and secure the determination when, until now, we have loved and venerated. But affords us no pleasure, of the the show in a maintion and secure the plorious rights and their candidates. And purchas and apport CASS and BUTLER, who are of the people and imbued with the determination we failed in our duty.
Meanwhile, the Democracy of the Union, nothing date us the principles. But is new phenomeson, will addrer unditates and secure the plorious rights and their candidates. And agains their Candidates. And agains their Candidates. And agains their Candidates. And agains their candidates and apport CASS and BUTLER, who are of the people and imbue will the determination when and their setting and best for the process and accelerations and there the plane principle. But is a subscriber for your excellent paper, and as a thorough American now supports the "no party candidate," Gen. Taylor, for the Presidency. One year ago the sion and of interest, may lift their parricidal hands Whig party was based solely upon principle," nc. cording to this Whig journal, but now that paper is willing to sacrifice all principles to a single wordavailibility." It supports a man for the Presidence who has insulted the Whig party, by declaring himself a candidate independent of their Convention, and that if they nominated him at all they must take him and without any avowal of principles whatever! military glory, is here exhibited! We hope never to hear our opponents whisper a word about "glorious Whig principles" after this. They have no principles, except the principle common to office seeking demagogues, but until now they never made the acknowledgment themselves. That portion of the party who now support the " no party candidate," of course will never again pretend to hold to principles

Out of New York, there is not a speck in the polit cal horizon. - Our conviction that Cass and BUTLE will be triumphantly elected, remains unshaken, the defection of Martin Van Buren and his son John to the contrary notwithstanding !

Facts for the People Facts for the People. LET THE PEOPLE DEMEMDER, That Millard Fillmore, the Bederal candidate Vice President, voted in Congress for THE BANK-RUPT LAW-that bill of abominations, through which thousands of honest laborers were defrauded If the Taylor Whigs, says the Baltimore Argus, ever heard of Henry Clay-the gentleman who was and hundreds of families turned out to the world LET THE PEOPLE REMEMBER, That on the 17th of January, 1843, a bill repealing of April, and then stop bragging about Gon. Taylor's this iniquitous law came up on its final passage in Congress, and Millard Fillmore, voted against re-"They (my Whig friends) represented to me that pealing it. See Congressional Globe for 1842-3, r

"They (my Whig friends) represented to me that the withdrawal of my name would be FATAL TO THE SUCCESS, and perhaps lead to the dissolution of the party, with which I have been associated particularly in the free States; that at no former period di there exist so great a probability of my ? clection, if I would consent to the use of my name; that the great States of New York and Ohie would in all probability cast their votes for me; that New York would more certainly bestow her suffrages upon me than any other candidate; that Ohie would States bat to me; that there is a better prespect than had heretofor at any time existed, that Penneylva-nia, would unite with them: that no empirication was the in the states of the suffrages in all probability cast their votes for me; that New States bat to me; that there is a better prespect than had heretofor at any time existed, that Penneylva-nia, would unite with them: that no empirication was the in the states of the prespect than had heretofor at any time existed, that Penneylva-nia, would unite with them: that no empirication was the in the states of the prespect than had heretofor at any time existed, that Penneylva-nia, would unite with them: that no empirication was the prespect than had heretofor at any time existed, that Penneylva-nia would unite with them: that no empirication would be addidue for the prespect than had heretofor at any time existed, that Penneylva-nia would unite with them: that no empirication would be addidue for the prespect than had heretofor at any time existed, that Penneylva-nia would unite with them: that no empirication the states of the prespect than had heretofor at any time existed, that Penneylva-nia would unite with them: that no empirication would be addidue and the prespect than had heretofor at any time existed, that Penneylva-nia would unite with them: that no empirication would be addidue and the prespect than had heretofor at any time existed, that Penneylva-had would be addidue the prespect than heretofor the prespe

Cass and Butter. We should like to know the name of the clover

Coming Out from the Foul Party-Another CONVERT TO DEMOCRACY

The Barnburner's Convention. UTICA, N. Y., June 22. By the following letter from Mr. BENJAMIN KUTZ, The Barnburners' Convention was temporarily prominent Whig, who keeps Sterrett's Gap Hotel, organized at noon to day, by the appointment of

Mr. K, has always been a most zealous and active when the names of John Van Buren, Preston King, Whig, and a mun of much influence in North Mid- and Samuel Young, were announced. deton township. But he, like scores of other Whigs The delegates from Ohio, Wisconsin, Connecticut, and Massachusetts, were permitted to participate in in this county, cannot and will not recognize the mination of Gen. Taylor. They will not countethe business of the Convention nance a nomination which was effected by trickery, The Chair appointed two delegatos from each deceit, cowardice and treachery; and they refuse to judicial district, as a committee to report officers for unholy and damnable," they note can talk of noth-politics to regard those who are not for us as seguination of the Convention. He torant to avow his principles. Is it any wonder that also appointed a committee of one from each judicial there should be mutiny in the Federal camp? The district, to propare an address and resolutions.

iomination of Gen. Taylor is in effect an ubandon-Adjourned to meet again at 4 P. M. ment of all Whig principles. He was nominated The Convention re-assembled at 4 o'clock. The because of his military reputation, and because he Committee on the permanent organization reported was considered by a few hungry office-scelling dema- for President, the Hon, SAMUEL Youxa, of Saratoga, gogues "available." Henry Clay, a man who is not (tremendous applause.) Eight Vice Presidents were chosen. The President delivered an address, upon fraid to declare his political opinions, fell under the laggers of pretended friends, and Gen. Scott and taking his seat, which was received will great en-Daniel Webster, also gods in the Federal party, fared thusiasm. In the course of his speech he said he similar fato. Gen. Taylor, a man who has set the was proud of being a barnburner, for thunder and Whig party at defiance, refused to recognize their lightning, the purifier of the atmosphere, were some-Whig party at dentance, related to receive and in a starburners. principles, and says they must take him independent times barnburners. Speaches wore delivered by Messrs Smith, Gouve and barburners. Speaches were delivered by Messrs Smith, Gouve times barnburners. Speaches were delivered by Messrs Smith, Gouve and batter, which were us to do so, the crowded state of our columns would the barburners. Speaches were delivered by Messrs Smith, Gouve and batter, which were us to do so, the crowded state of our columns would the barburners. Speaches were delivered by Messrs Smith, Gouve and batter, which were us to do so, the crowded state of our columns would the barburners. Speaches were delivered by Messrs Smith, Gouve and batter, which were us to do so, the crowded state of our columns would the column of the necessary space" !! The Burlington Free Frees, (Whig, tells the Con-vention that, in rejecting Clay, they Barbar and the roll. with the people. The friends of Clay, Webster and received with great enthusiasm. During Mr. Butler's est in their professions-are disgusted with the base Buren, and his reply.

10

The substance of Mr. Van Buren's letter is to the conduct of those who governed the late Philadelphia National Convention, and who were willing to see following effect. He announces his determination, the principles of the Whig party trampled into the previously expressed in 1844, to retire from political self with shame as with a garment. What would dust by the iron heel of a military chieftain. Mark life, to be unchanged. He declines a negligibilition,dust by the from here of a minimity emitting information in the fore of the declares of the Baltimots Convent, way, there never should be another President north the voide interview of the Baltimots Convent, way, there never should be another President north way, there never should be another President north way, there never should be another President north to way, there never should be another President north way, there never should be another President north to be diversed by a majority of that the declares that all the Barnburners file way, there never should be another President north to make a separate nomination. His language is pride to be allowed the privilege of volting for show in greatest to make a separate nomination. His language is display and sounding of trumpets. Gen. Cass will be eleved by a majority equal to Gen. Jackson's. We feel confident of it.
But, to the letter below. Let all into whose hands this paper may fall read it?
Mr. Bratton-Thave hitherto be an airdent and measures, believing the success of both essential to another of salvery is a moral ourse.
Mr. Bratton-Thave hitherto be an airdent and measures, believing the success of both essential to the cottenion of salvery is a moral ourse.
The Convention the adlourned till to-morrow our words, the Whig party will sorely regret the day He reviews the proceedings of the Baltimore Donven.

The Convention then adjourned till to-morrow orning, at 8 o'clock. THE NOMINATIONS.

In cancus, last night, after much discussion, it was decided to make a full national nomination. An informal ballot was then gone into, with the folwing result :---FOR PRESIDENT. Martin Van Buren, Addison Gardiner, John Van Buren, A Transfer J. A. Dix, J. M. Nilcs, C. C. Cambreleng, Marcus Morton, FOR VICE PRESIDENT Henry Dodge, Benjamin Tappan,

69

12

John M. Nilcs 11 - 5 Scattering, 5 The Convention met this morning at nine o'clock. The Convention met this morning at nine o'clock. The attendance was even larger than it was yester. "For ourself, 'slut or swim, live or die' we are day-the utmost harmony and enthusiasm prevailing." Telegraphic despatches to the President of the sand others, were received and read.

rading the journal of yesterday, the Course minated for the Presidency. The announcement alled forth the most deafening cheers.

Hon, HENRY DODGE, United States Senator from he State of Wisconsin, was manimously nominated for the Vice Presidency. After the nominations wers made, an immense mass meeting was held in the street. The meeting was addressed by Ex-Governor Morton, of Massa-

FEDERAL The nomination of Old Zack has been warnity receive.lar equint. - Philadiphia Inquirer. lladilphia Inquirer. The Chesning Comments.

From the Vermont Journal. on the top of the mountain, on the line dividing Thomas FARNINGTON, of Tloga county, as Chairman, Cumberland and Perry counties, it will be seen that and Gilbert Dean, of Dutchess county, and W. W. he denounces the nomination of Gen. Taylor with in-dignation, and declares himself for Cass and Burnes. of delegates was called, and great applause onsued of delegates was called, and great applause onsued tion of Gon. Taylor for the Presidency; and I should have voted against its confirmation had not the cus-tomary resolution (of confirmation) been withdrawn. On my return, or scener if praticable, I shall address to you the reasons for my course as your Dolegate, and for my uscompromising hestility to the election of Gen. Taylor. I request the Whig papers of Vermont to publish this card. HORCE EVERTT.

Honace Evenett. his card. Washington, June 12, 1848.

" Ho samington, June 14, 1040. "By many good Whigs of the North this nomina-tion has been received with sore and bitter disap-pointment. General Taylor was not our choice. We would have preferred any other one of the many Whigs whose claims were discussed before the as-sembling of the Convention. We have often declared our preferences for a northern man, a non-slavehol-der."

Windsor is the strongest Whig county in Vermont; gave Harrison over 4000 majority!

The National Eagle, published at Claremont, N. H, with one half of its circulation in Vermont, "whrmly received" the nomination in this wise :" "In the absence of the editor of this paper, we Richer than all their tribe."

The Roxbury Gazette, a violent Whig paper, edited by a member of Gov. Briggs' Whig council says:

"Gen. Taylor once said that if he could have his

I deem it proper, in reply to your latter, distinctly o repeat that 1 am not before the people of the U, lates as a candidate for the next Presidency. Gen. Taylor to Dr. Bronson.

Gen. Taylor to Dr. Bronson. It, has not been my intention at any moment to change my position, or to withdraw my name from the canvass, whoever may be the nominee of the Na-tional Convention, oither of the Whig or Democratic party.—Gen. Taylor to the Richmond Republican.

WARM GREETING FROM INDIANA. From the Lafayette, Indiana, (Whig) Journal. "Hnug be the Heavens in Black."

Gen. Taylor is nominated for President-and Millard Fillmore for Vice President.

Fillmore for Vice President. "We are inducted to Brother Bausman for a slip from the office of the Whig Tomahawk, containing the result of the first, second and fourth balloting for President, by the Whig National Convention. It will be seen that the first ballot was a little different from what it was reported in our extra of yesterday. "The nomination of Gen. Taylor is a diagrace to the Convention, and an insult to the intelligence and virtue of the American people. "Mr. Fillmore is a good man, and would have been a thousand times better selection for President than General Taylor.

CHEERING FROM CONNECTICUT.

Current of June 2016, told the convection of Mr. Lucius E. Smith has been employed as an editor of the Hartford Courant, for some time past-nearly two years we believe. He is evidently ant honest Whig and a Whig from principle. Consequently he cannot support Zachary Taylor for the Presidency. The following announcement in the Courant of June 2016, tells the story. The editorial connection of Mr. Lucius E. Smith with this store he scenet.

The editorial connection of Mr. Lucids E. Smith with this paper has cased in the caunot, consistently with his views of duty, support the nomination of General Taylor, and should not in any degree ho considered responsible for the articles which have appeared in our columns the past work favoring that nomination.—Hartford Times.

 Vice Presidents—A. KER, if. Jambs Mortravool.
 Vice Presidents—A. KER, if. Jambs Mortavool.
 Vice Presidents—A. Kerker, if. Jambs Mortavool.
 Vice Presidents—A. Kerker, if. Jambs Mortavool.
 Vice Presidents Mortavool. MASSACHUSETIS UNANIMITY.

Democratic Meeting.

thusiastic meeting of the Democrats of the Borough of Catilaic, was held at GRER'S HOTE:, on Saturday evening last, for the putpess of forming a Democra-tic Club. WILLIAM SPOTTSWOOD was chosen Clieb, WILLIAM SPOTTSWOOD wie closed President, and Joseru C. Thoarson, Scorclary. On motion, Dr. J. Baughinan, E. Cornman, Esq. M. Holcomb, Esq., W. Gold, Esq., and Jos. Stuart were appointed a committee to select officers for the permanent organization of a Democratic Club, while permanent organization of a Democratic Club, while permanent organization of a Democratic Club, while permanent of the Science S permanent organization of a Democratic Club, who after retiring for a few minutes, reported the follow. ing genitemen as officers, who were unanimously elected by the meeting, namely: President-P, DAVIDSON, Esq. Vice Presidents-A. KER, jr. JAMES SPOTTSWOOD. Corresponding Scoretary-PHILIF QUIGLEY. Recording Secretary-PHILIF QUIGLEY. Recording Secretary-PHILIF QUIGLEY. Treasurer-GEO. N. SCHUCHMAN. On motion, David Smith, Esq., George Sanderson, Erg., and Capt. J. Goodyear, were appointed a com imittee to draft a Constitution and By-Laws for the regulation of the Club. A motion was then mado that the chair appoint a committee of three from each ward whose duity it

onventii

Presidency and Vice Presidency. The Hon. Martin Van Buren was unanimously

Carlisie Herald first published this infamous lie wo falseloods need only to be exposed to cover their au-

Delebration of the 4th at Carline.

cratic citizens as find it convenient, would be wel

Come on, every one of you. You shall receive a cordist welcome, and witness a day of sentimental repaid for a visit to Chrlisle on the occasion.

thors with merited shame.

chcerfulness.

is novel, certainly.

fellow and good Democrat who composed the vers following 1

Your friend and fellow-citizen, SAM. HOUSTON. To J. H. Graham, Jno. Goodycar, jr. Wm. Gnuld, Esqrs, and others, Committee of Invitation. Invance SLANDER ExroseD.—We invite attention to the letter of Senator CAMERON, to be found on our first page, which scatters to the winds the base charge insteagaint Gen. Case, that he had introduced and passed a bill through Congress reducing the pay of the Voluctiors in the army one dollar per month for clothing; and that for this offence he was barned in configit by the indignent Volunteers.⁵ When the Carliele Herald first published this infamous lie we denied it. We knew nothing of the act that had At a "Whig" meeting in Worcester, Massachu-sotts, held on the 21st inst., the following scone took passed Congress in relation to the soldiers clothing. but from our knowledge of Gen. Cass, and knowing place. We copy from the Boston Times. Judge him to be the fast friend of the soldier, we did not Allen and Hon. Henry Wilson, were both delegates hesitate to pronounce the charge a wilful and delibe.

THE TRUTH COMING.

of any kind. The editors of the North American are

REMEMBER.

If there be any one Democrat who has the leas desire, under present circumstances, to vote for Gen.

vote for Millard Filmore, who, when in the Congress that any democrat wishes to endorse that infame

HENRY CLAY AND THE WHIGS.

of this number.

vole.

to the Philadelphia Convention : rate faischood. Now let our readers peruse the let. ter of Sonator Cameron, and they will find that the bill iutroduced by Gon. Cass, and which passed Con-gress, instead of taking one dollar of the soldier, actually added one dollar to his pay! Such infamous Chalada and the based for an anti-soldier, in famous the based for an anti-declared at Philadelphia. Convention i Wing Dissaries actions in Worcester. The into positical excitance in Worcester. The bill iutroduced by Gon. Cass, and which passed Con-hus been since 1840, says the Barre Gazette. The bill declared at Philadelphia to the part of the soldier, in out positical excitance in the soldier in the soldier in the soldier in the soldier is the part of the soldier in the soldier is the soldier in the soldier is the soldier in the soldier is the soldier is the soldier in the soldier is the s declared at Philadelphia. On Wednesday night a tremendous meeting was held to hear Judgo Allen's report of the National Convention, and to make arrangements for the anti-Taylor Convention which is to meet next Wednes-day. The spacious town hall was crammed to suffi-cation

Judge Allen made a speech of two hours, in which

Our democratic friends of Camberland are likely. to have a splendid celebration of the great national antiversary. Gen. Housron, Col. FRAZIER, and the Hon. DAVID S. KAUPARA, all distinguished speakers, will be present. If we are to have no public celo-bration of the day in Harrisburg, such of our demo-bration of the day in Harrisburg, such of our demo-Judge Allen made a speech of two hours, in which he exposed the management of the Southern and the treactory of a portion of the Northern delegates.— So far from the nomination of Gen. Taylor having been submitted to, morely because the north could not agree, he proved that nothern doughfaces had early arranged to bring about that nomination. Judge A, said he should not mince matters, and he said that Governor Davis and Governor Lincoln had been vary busy in defeating any attempt to bring Mr. Web-ster forward and in securing the selection of Gen.

Who advised the use of bloodhounds against Faylor. He dared these men to deny it, and he foarlessly ding Whig mechanics of this city, came forth and in it. the Indians in the Florida war? See Whig papers tro (they say) is made delightfully fragrant. This MATRIMONIAL FELICITY .- There are at least a dozen Harrieburg Keystone.

 Bayrage in the District, --In the Holes of Re-presentatives, on Files, of Now Hans, --In the Files, of Now Hans, in Presentatives, on Files, of Now Hans, (all of the Presentatives, of Not Hans, (all of the Presentatives, (all of the Presenatives, (all of the Presentatives, (all of the Presentatives, (al

From Main to Georgia hear the sound-'Tis tolling—rushing on-From Aztec's lofty capital From Azice's iony capital To distant Oregon! The Ocean bound Republic joins In loud and mighty cheers, They'll make us glorious officers, THESE BRAVE OLD VOLONTEERS!

"That" Black Cookade. The latest falsehood of the Federal press is, that havero Gazette thus sottles that question: "He was born in October; 1752. The era of the prevalence of the black conkado was in 1708 and '09, and consequently General Cass was then only 16 or 17 years of age. At the age of 17 he emigrated to the Northwestern territory, and actiled at Marietta. Hopoful charge, for a wretched slander to issue against a boy of sixteen, who with his revolutionary site, was sejourning among us. With this simple for statement, the whole of this miscrable Roorbuck be most wretice and dissingt in thin sit. nust valorize and dissipate into thin air.

General Cass wore the " Black Cockade." The Delaware Gazette thus settles that question :

WHIG MOTTOES. Gen. Taylor and opposition to the Moxican war, "Foo Soil," and Gen. Taylor's three hundred stores to work it! Oh! what a pity Henry Clay could not have been placed in some "little nook or corner" where he "might have slain a Maxican," then he would have been nominated as the Federal anti-war e-andidate! Set Sources, Northampton; Worthangton, Taylor and Sources, Sources, Sources, Northampton; Set Sources, Northampton; Set Sources, Northampton; Set Sources, Sou Oh, poor Hurry Clay : Oh, poor Harry Clay ! If you had slain a Mexican, You could have gained the day. Ohio Statesman.

American, Manchester. Changes in Ohio. Tribune, Oity ;

The Ohio Statesman says, that at a great Democra tic meeting at Columbus, Mr. Shields, one of the low. Courier, Senaca Falls; Sentinol, Otisca, Sentinol, Otisca, PENNSYLVANIA-Gazette, Newcasilo.

The Indians in the Florida war? See Whig papers and effectually exposed their freachery to the North See Whig mapers and effectually exposed their freachery to the North See Whig mapers and effectually exposed their freachery to the North See Whig mapers and effectually exposed their freachery to the North See Whig mapers and effectually exposed their freachery to the North See Whig mapers and effectually exposed their freachery to the North See Whig mapers and their subserviency to the South. The meeting was addreaded by Hon. Henry Wilson, of Natick, massas of stasm power throws 3000 foot of fresh air of cologne water into the apparatus, the whole thes inde delwideling for ease. The North See Whig and their subserviency to deny in Worcester, that the blod of the measures of the Whig party. INDIANA-Journal, Lafayotta, Tippecanoe Co. like, the Whigs, to catch votes, and afterwards fool the people, as in the era of Tylerism. ity to the support of Gen. T. under any circumstan-tSince recented.

News-Letter, Westfield, 8.

NEW YORK.

Onto.

Whig, Lake Co.-11

+Watchman, Montpolie

Whig, Penn-Yan; Mirror, Warsaw;

Sentinel, Otisca, 6.

Gazette, Massillon.

Times, Meigs Co.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

eads. Why, such ignorance of themen of their romained obstinately silent in relation to the Whig wn country is inexcusable-they should have been well spanked, and sent to bed without their suppers. Wille "BARNBURNERS."-The New York Tribune gives the following as a list of the Whig journals

Borry we can't say as much for the Whigs.

in Congress in 1841, referring to Mr. Clay, made use probably take up his permanent residence in the city of the following languages in To the reproach of a fine contract of the spent much of his youth, party supported by his name and talent alone, they have been much of the valuable information he many the best density in the spent much of the spent m have aver ahandoned him in the hour of need, and possesses. He has lost all his popularity in Mexico, have ever a handoned him in the hour of need, and and is theroughly disgusted with the country. Al-left diff to the mortification of being distanced by monte is considerably ahead of his countryman in overy competitor."

Whig, Medina Co. Times, Mt. Vernon ; *West'n Star, Lebanor MASSACHUSETTS .- The Boston Whig comes to us filled with donunciations of Gon. Tayloi, both edito-ing hardware, that in dealing with the impracticable rial and from correspondents. The editor, in concluding a long article, says :

INDIANA—Journal, Lafuyetta, Tippecanoe Co. We understand these to evince implicable heatti-ty to the support of Gen. T. under any circumstan iso. Since recented. Beside the foregoing, the Editors of the Cincinnati Attas Zenie (Ohio) Torch Light, and Lowel), Mass. Attas Zenie (Ohio) Torch Light, and Lowel), Mass. The Narve Amsarcan CANDIDATE.—The Philadel. The Narve Amsarcan CANDIDATE.—The Philadel. Interview of Control of Con romained obstinately silent in rolation to the Whig nomination of Gen. Taylor. Of course he will ulti-mately yield with a decent grace—at least we think su—but his bitter mortification will still be too heart-fielt to permit him to feel interested in Taylor's suc-cess where Taylor a run DEMOGRATS.—The cell for in the Source and the second standard for the source a ALMONTE .--- This distinguished Mexican is about MEMORABLE LANGUAGE .- Gen. Butler, in a speech to visit the United States with his family, and will light and information, and will no doubt, fool much races of Mexico.

the polutoes arrive dally, and fairly flood the market.