"OUR COUNTRY-MAY ITALWAYS BE RIGHT-BUT RIGHT OF WRONG, OUR COUNTRY."

AT $2 00 PRR ANNUM.

VOL. 35.

1-

orm the

CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, JULY 6, 1848.

NO. 4.

THE AMERICAN VOLUNTEER.

trust the future to Him, who knoweth, what is best of S-

of S.—. Neither had they perceived how the beauty of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the morning had passed away and the morning had passed away, and the beauty of the morning had passed away, and the beauty of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away, and the atmost of the morning had passed away and the atmost of the morning had passed away and the atmost of the morning had passed away and the morning had p

MARTINE CONTINUES CONTINUE