After the meeting had thus been organized, on motion, a committee, consisting of the following gentlemen, were appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting:

During the absence of the committee, the meeting was eloquently addressed by Mr. J. V. E. THORN, of Carlisle. After Mr. Thorn had concluded his remarks, J.

ELLIS BONHAM, Esq., from the committee, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolution Resoluted, That we heartily approve of the resolu-tions adopted by the Democratic National Convention assembled at Baltindro, which nominated General Lewis CASS for President; and Geni. WA. O. Burtzen for Vice President; and adopt them as the platform on which we, in common with the Democracy of the Nation are willing to stand in the coming contest. on which we, in common with the Democracy of the Nation, are willing to stand in the coming contest. Resolved, That we most cordially sanction the measures of our National Administration, and con-sider President Polk a model President-calm, firm, consistent and faithful, in the discharge of the high trust, with which he has been colothed by the people. His administration has been most important and full of thrilling events, and will occupy a large space in the history of his country. Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of the late lamented Governor, FRANCIE R. SHUMK. He was an ornament to the State, but unfortunately stricken down in the midst of his usefulness, while he was beginning to reup in their rickness the fruits of a life of honesty and truth in the service of the people-of honesty and truth in the service of the people-of honesy and truth in the service of the people-long will his memory be revered by the people of Pennsylvania, and often will his administration be pointed to as one embodying the radical principles of Democracy, with integrity and purity of purpose. Resolved, That taking the late lamented Shunk as our guide, we are opposed to the charter of any new Banks of issue, and the recharter of any old ones, unless accompanied with the wholesome restrictions of the individual liability of the stockholders. We believe we have banking capital enough in Pennsyl-nia, for all useful purposes, and that persons ongaged in the business of banking should be responsible to the extent of their means for the dobls insured in the prosecution of that business, as well as those who are engaged in other pursuits of life. We believe also that a large increase of banking capital deranges are engaged in other pursuits of the. We believe also that a large increase of banking capital deranges the standard of value, renders the price of produce and all articles of sale fluctuating and uncertain, induces persons to borrow beyond their means of payment, fosters a spirit of reckless speculation, and

Immediately after his arrest he, was marched to Bridewell, and subsequently was conveyed to Dublin, and lodged in Kilmainham iail.

He is said to be cheerful, and his wife is allowed free access to him; other friends are permitted to converse with him in the presence of the fail aithorities. Richard O'Gorman, for whose arrest three hun-dred pounds are offered, on attempting to escape from the country, was arrested by the Coast Gaard, after he had crossed the Shannon in an open beat.— The notice was forthwith sent to the police, but be-fore they arrived, O'Gorman had persuaded his cap-tors that he was a mere traveller from Derry to Clare, and loft in a boat.
