

THE VOLUNTEER.

John B. Bratton, Editor and Proprietor.
CARLISLE, THURSDAY, SEPT. 14, 1848.

AGENCY.

UPPER P. PALMER, Esq., is our authorized Agent for procuring advertisements, reading subscriptions and sending collections for the Volunteer, at his office, N. W. corner of Third and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia.

FOR PRESIDENT.

GEN. LEWIS CASS.
Of Michigan.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.
WILLIAM O. BUTLER.
Of Kentucky.

FOR GOVERNOR.
MORRIS LONGSTRETH.
Montgomery county.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER.
ISRAEL PAINTER.
Of Westmoreland county.

DEMOCRATIC ELECTORAL TICKET.

Senatorial Electors.
WILLIAM BOILER, of Clearfield.
DAVID D. WAGNER, of Northampton.
Representative Electors.

- | | |
|----------------------|-----------------------|
| Dial. | Dial. |
| 1. Henry L. Benner, | 13. John C. King, |
| 2. Horn R. Kneass, | 14. John Widdiman, |
| 3. Isaac Shuck, | 15. Robert J. Fisher, |
| 4. A. L. Rostfort, | 16. Fredrick Smith, |
| 5. Jacob S. Yost, | 17. John Criswell, |
| 6. Robert E. Wright, | 18. Charles A. Black, |
| 7. Wm. W. Downing, | 19. Geo. W. Bowman, |
| 8. Henry Haldeman, | 20. John R. Shannon, |
| 9. Peter Klone, | 21. Geo. P. Hamilton, |
| 10. B. S. Schooner, | 22. William H. Davis, |
| 11. Wm. Swartzland, | 23. Timothy Fox, |
| 12. Jacob Brewster, | 24. Jas. G. Campbell. |

Democratic County Ticket.

Congress.
JAMES X. McLANAHAN, of Franklin county,
Assembly.

ABRAHAM LAMBERTON, North Middleton.
JACOB LEFFEVER, Dickinson.

JAMES F. LAMBERTON, Dickinson.
Clerk of the Courts.

JOHN HYER, Allen.
Register.

WILLIAM GOULD, Carlisle.
Commissioner.

JAMES KELSO, Southampton.
Director of the Poor.

THOMAS BRADLEY, South Middleton.
Auditor.

JOHN B. VANDERBELT, Newton.

Cass, Butler, Longstreth, & Painter.
CASS, BUTLER, LONGSTRETH & PAINTER, CARLISLE, PA. Agents of the Club, and of the Wagoning party, the 14th inst. The election is at hand—turn out!

Cass, Butler, & Reth.
S. MIDDLETON AWAKE!—A meeting of the Democracy of South Middleton township, will be held at the public house of P. B. Winkley, Esq., in Pappertown, Saturday, the 16th inst., to which the democracy of Dickinson and Monroe townships, and all others friendly to the cause are invited. Messrs. Adair, Bonham, Miller, and others, have consented to be present and address the meeting.

Cass, Butler, Longstreth, Painter, & the Whole County Ticket.
MIFFLIN TOWNSHIP AWAKE!—The Democracy of Mifflin township, will meet at Christy's Hotel, in Mifflin township, on Saturday next, the 16th inst., at 1 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of raising a CASS AND BUTLER POLK. Messrs. James H. Graham, Esq., and other able speakers will be present to address the people.

Cass, Butler, Longstreth & Painter.
ALLEY TOWNSHIP AWAKE!—The Democracy of Alley and adjoining townships are invited to attend a Democratic meeting on Friday, the 15th inst., at 6 o'clock, P. M., Messrs. Graham, Bonham, Miller, and other able speakers, are expected to be present. Turn out, Democrats!

Cass, Butler, Longstreth, & Painter.
RALLY, DEMOCRATS OF DICKINSON AND ADJOINING TOWNSHIPS!—The Democracy of Dickinson and adjoining townships, will hold a Democratic meeting at the Stone Tavern, kept by Mr. Kaufman, on Saturday the 23rd inst., at 9 o'clock in the afternoon. Several will be present to address the people. We hope that the Democracy of Dickinson will turn out in their strength.

Rev. S. Bonham, a converted Jew, and a missionary to that people, will preach in the M. E. Church, on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. A collection will be taken up in aid of the funds of the Society for meliorating the condition of the Jews.

The Rev. gentleman is also expected to preach in one or more of the other churches of the place in the after part of the day.

Another Pole.—The Democratic boys of our town raised another splendid Young Hickory pole, on Market Square, a few evenings since—the names of Cass, Butler, and Longstreth floating from the top. After the pole had been firmly planted, three hearty cheers were given for Cass and Butler—three for Longstreth—three for Painter—and three for the whole County Ticket, which made the welkin ring.

A Tavern.—Mr. David Miller, of South Middleton township, will accept our thanks for the receipt of a basket of delicious peaches and apples. Mr. M. we believe, keeps a Nursery, and is prepared to sell young trees at low prices. Persons wishing to cultivate the first quality of fruit, should give him a call.

Obituary.—The Federals had a meeting at the Rolling Springs on Saturday last, for the purpose of raising a pole. The meeting was a thin affair, and in the attempt to raise the pole, it snapped and broke, and the flag, bearing the names of Taylor and Fillmore, was landed in a mud hole. We regret to hear that several of the men present were more or less injured by the falling of the pole. Thinking it with the Federals—they are ever attempting to imitate the Democrats, but about the time they think they have their object accomplished their hope fall to the ground. The break down at the Rolling Springs is ominous of the complete downfall of Federalism in this county.

Capt. Braoo is stamping for Cass and Butler, and is making as great havoc in the ranks of Federalism, by his domestic speeches, as his "Grapo" did in the ranks of the Mexicans!

HON. JAMES X. McLANAHAN.

This staunch republican and tried Democrat has been placed in nomination as the Democratic candidate for Congress for this district, with a unanimity which betokens his triumphant election. He had the unanimous support of the Conference—all the conferees, from the three counties composing the district, Cumberland, Perry, and Franklin, casting their votes in his favor. This is a compliment as well merited as it has been freely bestowed, and augurs well for the future harmony of the democracy of this Congressional district.

Mr. McLANAHAN resides in Chambersburg, and is well known to the Democracy of old Mother County, Maryland. He was elected by the aid of their votes to the Senate of this State, for the term of three years, and well and faithfully did he perform his duties. His course while in the Senate met with the entire approbation of the people, and the talent he displayed while in that situation was not only a matter of pride to his immediate constituents, but to the entire democracy of Pennsylvania. An able and ready debater, his views were always sound and reliable, and inspired the confidence of the Democratic party in no ordinary degree.

During the time of Mr. McLANAHAN's services in the Pennsylvania Senate, much difficulty and embarrassment were felt in our State affairs, both as to the extent and burden of our public debt, and the best means to be devised to pay the interest and gradually liquidate the principle, so as to preserve unimpaired our public credit. Mr. McLANAHAN, during this trying period, supported measures of the most stringent economy for reducing the expenses of the Commonwealth, and was particularly zealous to maintain inviolate our pledged faith. Since the expiration of his official term he has devoted himself to the duties of his profession as a lawyer, and is well known in that calling to have what are termed, in the right sense, "troops of friends."

We may therefore congratulate the democracy of this county on this happy selection of a candidate for Congress, and we have no doubt of his election over the present inefficient member, Jasper E. Brady by a majority of from eight to twelve hundred votes!

JUDGE LONGSTRETH'S ADDRESS.

On our first page will be found the able address of the Hon. MORRIS LONGSTRETH, before the Jeffersonville Agricultural Society of Montgomery County, delivered in January, 1847. Its length should not preclude our readers from giving it a careful and attentive perusal. It contains much valuable information, conveyed in easy and chaste language, which may be of immense service to the farmers of this rich valley. The science of agriculture has heretofore attracted too little attention in this county, but a growing interest is manifesting itself by means of our Agricultural Association. We have as fertile lands in Cumberland valley as lie in the State, and it is as much entitled to the appellation of the "granary spot of Pennsylvania" as is the county of Lancaster. Our land is of the very best quality, but, by the generally speaking, are too large, and are, in instances, tilled with too little care. Many of our farms contain as high as two hundred and fifty and three hundred acres. In the opinion of many intelligent farmers, this is too much to be farmed to advantage, and such farms should be divided, and perhaps subdivided. Look at the instance of Mr. Jacob Shimer, of Northampton county, mentioned by Judge Longstreth, having a farm of only one hundred acres, and yet producing yearly 1400 bushels of wheat, 600 bushels of corn, and 300 bushels of rye, by means of proper and careful cultivation.

Judge LONGSTRETH is a practical farmer himself, and as he appears to understand the affairs of his farm so well, the people will no doubt entrust him with the interests of the Commonwealth. He is so good a farmer that he will evidently make a most excellent Governor.

Again we urge our readers to peruse the address and then vote for its author on the second Tuesday of next month. MORRIS LONGSTRETH will make a model Governor, as he is a model farmer—a fit successor of the illustrious Shunk. We expect to see Judge Longstreth receive the support of sensible men of all parties, as the people at large have entire confidence in his ability and integrity—his enlarged views and exalted patriotism.

NOTE THE WHOLE TICKET!

Unnumbered falsehoods will, as usual, be circulated by the Federals against some of the gentlemen on the Democratic Ticket, on the eve of the election, and we caution our friends not to be deceived by them. The candidates of the Democratic party are all "good men and true," and every worthy citizen, by every principle of patriotism, to throw aside all prejudice, and to vote the Democratic ticket, the whole Democratic ticket, and nothing but the Democratic ticket, as it stands at the head of our editorial columns.

We understand that Mr. McCUNE, one of the Federal candidates for Assembly, is trying to save himself from an ignominious defeat, by attempting to prejudice the people against Messrs. Lambertson and Lefever, for having, during the last session of the Legislature, supported a law for making a new road to run through North Middleton township. Having learned some time since that the Federals were attempting to make a little capital out of this matter, we felt a curiosity to know who the signers to the petition asking for the road were. We wrote to a friend at Harrisburg, on the subject, who sent us a copy of the petition and the names of the petitioners. The petition is worded in strong language, and is signed by about 400 respectable men—a large majority of the signers being Whigs! With others we find the name of our neighbor E. BEATTY, editor of the Herald. And yet the said editor has the face to urge the people to vote against Messrs. Lambertson and Lefever, because, he says, they voted for a bill for which E. Beatty, and a majority of the Whigs of Carlisle petitioned! On the petition may also be seen the names of the Biddles, Nobles, Wattson, L. G. Brandebury, John B. Parker, John H. Weaver, Geo. A. Lyne, Wm. M. Porter, A. A. Line, (the present Whig candidate for Register,) James Hoffer, (Whig Sheriff,) Robert McCartney, Andrew Blair, and about two hundred others whose names we are prepared to give. The Whigs, therefore, should be the last to open their mouths concerning this law, for a large majority of the signers praying for said law, belong to the Whig or Federal party. But, we have been told by a friend who has examined the Journals, that Mr. Lambertson did not vote for said bill at all, and that it passed without his vote. So we think that gun is spiked. Mr. McCUNE must try something else, and we suppose he will now concern Mr. Lambertson because he did not vote for a bill for which a majority of the Federals of Carlisle petitioned!

The Herald is defending his Accidency, Gov. Johnson, for the part he took in passing the law creating Relief Notes. Our neighbor, mentions the names of a few Democratic members of Assembly who voted with Johnson for said law, and speaks of them as men "whom the editor of the Volunteer denounces in the State Capitol Gazette, denounces every member of the Federals for that infamous act. We held them up before their constituents, and exposed their treachery, and but few of them, if any, were re-elected. The people condemned the act which authorized Relief Notes, and they will likewise condemn the father of that disgraceful act. Mark it.

The New York Tribune, the leading Whig paper in the State of New York, made the following prophecy a few weeks since. It will be verified to the letter: "General Taylor can never be President of these United States, and it is useless for the Whig party to throw away their votes in the attempt." James Thompson, of Erie, William Strong, of Reading, David Wilcox, of Bradford, Joel B. Danner, of Gettysburg, and Alfred Gilmore, of Butler, have been nominated for Congress by the Democracy of their respective districts.

ARE YOU PREPARED?

Democrats! It is now but a few weeks until the election, and the question is, ARE EACH AND EVERY ONE OF YOU PREPARED FOR THE CONFLICT? In the different townships are your Committees of Vigilance in motion, and have they warned the friends of Democracy to beware of the FRAUDS and IMPOSITIONS which will be attempted to be practiced upon them by the Federals? Just on the eve of the election? We have been assailed by letter and otherwise, that the foe is abroad at work in the different townships, and that some of the deepest laid schemes and plots that the Federals have ever been guilty of, are to be brought into active operation a short time before the election! The apparent calm and quietude of the Federal party is not without its meaning, and should not be permitted to go unobserved. We hope our friends therefore, will be prepared to guard against these underhanded schemes of the foe—and that they will reflect well upon the fact, that the most strenuous efforts are to be made by the Federals only a short time before the day of election to deceive and defraud the honest by FALSE STATEMENTS, and to delude and draw off the firm and unsuspecting from the support of the Democratic candidates! We have referred to these things, to put our friends in the different townships on their guard. Let the question of each man to his neighbor be—ARE YOU PREPARED? Let each one do his duty—and all will be well!

LOOK OUT FOR THEM!

We noticed in our borough yesterday no less than three prominent Federals from Harrisburg, and from our knowledge of these politicians, we feel bound to caution our friends to keep an eye on them. They were on an electioneering tour, and their carriages were well filled with lying Federal documents against the Democratic candidates—all of which, no doubt, were for distribution in this county. This is rather a small business for such men as Hon. Alexander Ramsey, Col. Wells Coville (Aid to Governor Johnston), and J. W. Fitch—very clever fellows, we admit, and able as well as all our personal friends. But we would advise Geo. Johnston, and Aids, and other ever-suspicious friends not to attempt to mislead the people of old Mother Cumberland, by circulating Federal speeches and falsehoods. Our people are too intelligent and too patriotic to be deceived into the support of Federalism. Again we caution our friends to keep on the lookout for Federal electioneers from Harrisburg. They are running through this county like mad dogs and are almost as much to be dreaded.

Great Whig Rebellion in New York!

Gen Taylor Repudiated by the Friends of Clay!—10,000 CLAY WHIGS IN COUNCIL! An immense meeting of whigs, dissatisfied with the Philadelphia nomination, was held in N. York on Thursday evening. The Tribune says 10,000 persons were present. Willis Hall presided, and the speakers were DeLaford, Smith, Selden and others. They said they could not go for Gen. Taylor, and as they could not do, let them raise the name of Henry Clay, and die fighting under his banner. The address and resolutions, put forth to the Whigs of the United States, are emphatic against Taylor. We have only room for the following extracts: "Impelled by every consideration of duty, principle and right, we come before you fellow citizens, indignantly impressed with the necessity which compels our dissent from the Philadelphia nomination. On the so-called grounds of 'availability,' the great and solid principles upon which is based the structure of our Government were there cast aside. For 'availability' a person was selected, whose military claims were his great military achievements. Urging 'availability,' our own beloved CLAY, and all those great leaders who, by their civil services, have made the great Whig party illustrious 'for all time,' were crowded out, and a mere soldier substituted. Unfolding a banner inscribed with that potential word 'availability' 171 members of that Convention, including the four unauthorized votes of Texas, and the five votes of Arkansas, cast by one individual, were obtained for General Taylor, and without another word—declaring no principles—issuing no address—making no platform—passing no resolutions—without compass, or guide, or landmark—they snatched the voice of a person, who could not be elected, and who would have been a disgrace to the Whig party. We reject to say there is no parallel to this electing course in the history of this or any other country. Since that nomination, the whole course of events have been a lie and not to conciliate the Whigs."

"The nomination has fallen dead upon the country—without response; no effort can galvanize it into practical vitality. His defeat we consider, under the circumstances, a thousand times over. We can conceive of no possible contingency that could alter this 'fixed fact.' If we consider his nomination proper, and warranted by the facts as they existed at the time it was made, justified by principle and sustained by that immutable and unchanging right which overrules all mere expediency, we are obliged to dissent. We support it, regardless of defeat, through all changes of vicissitudes. Condemned by all these tests—and yet the more enforced by his own singular and unyielding course—setting at defiance the very man who 'stood to conquer'—we are obliged to dissent, and in regard to him and hereafter no more avail, and of no more binding force to the Whig party, than if Gen. Cass had seen fit to take the Philadelphia nomination, if tendered to him on any terms. The Whig party have no notice in the field."

"At this juncture of affairs there can be but one course left to men of principle in our own ranks, and we know thousands of all parties, who cannot rush to our standard, and we present them with one useless name, around which is no hope of dependence and gloom all patriotic hearts center."

"Fully aware of the responsibility which attaches to us, and you, we declare our fixed and unalterable determination to vote for Henry Clay, of Kentucky, with the feeling of Gen. Taylor, and to adhere to this and pledge ourselves, one and all, to use unceasingly all honorable means to insure success. With pride and pleasure we record our votes for the Vice Presidency to an honored son of our own State Millard Fillmore. Whigs of the United States, we have declared our choice—we have unfurled our banner, and attaching to these names the old Whig platform of Principles, we have named them to the mass. Having arrived at this determination conscientiously, and resolved to strike for that cause which can alone secure happiness, peace and security to the country, we will, earnestly entreating your co-operation in behalf of the great National Statesman, go forward in this fight, unsheathing the sword and throwing the scabbard away until after November."

Resolutions were passed, providing for the formation of an electoral ticket, and a general organization of the friends of Henry Clay. They are in good earnest, and from demonstrations made at Albany, Poughkeepsie and elsewhere, the movement is likely to be extensive.

NOTE THE PROPHECY!

The New York Tribune, the leading Whig paper in the State of New York, made the following prophecy a few weeks since. It will be verified to the letter: "General Taylor can never be President of these United States, and it is useless for the Whig party to throw away their votes in the attempt." James Thompson, of Erie, William Strong, of Reading, David Wilcox, of Bradford, Joel B. Danner, of Gettysburg, and Alfred Gilmore, of Butler, have been nominated for Congress by the Democracy of their respective districts.

POLE RAISING.

CASS AND BUTLER MEETING.

The friends of Cass, Butler, Longstreth, and Painter, pursuant to notice given, held a meeting at Hagerstown, on Saturday last, and erected very splendid Hickory Poles—the one at Dugy's and the other at Griest's hotel—each pole measuring over 100 feet above the ground, with beautiful streamers floating at the top of each, bearing the names of "Cass, Butler and Longstreth." The unconquerable democracy of old Silver Spring turned out in their strength, and many from adjacent townships were also in attendance. Carlisle sent a delegation of over fifty. The meeting, indeed, was very large and enthusiastic, and must have numbered at least 400 sturdy Democrats. The democracy of Silver Spring are wide awake, and present a scene of activity, animation, enthusiasm, and confidence, truly encouraging. Set her down at over 200 majority for the Democratic candidates. We can assure our friends abroad that old Mother Cumberland will give a larger Democratic majority this fall than has been polled for the six last years. Of this we want no better evidence than the meetings which are now being held in the different townships. After the poles had been firmly planted, the meeting was organized by the appointment of the following officers: President—Hon. JAMES CLEGGINS. Vice Presidents—C. B. Harman, Wm. Eckels, Joshua Culp, John Babb. Secretary—E. M. Matcer.

The meeting was then most eloquently addressed by S. D. Adair, J. E. Bonham, Lem T. Todd, and Hugh Gallagher, Esquires, of Carlisle, and by Capt. J. A. Moore, of South Middleton. A committee, consisting of George H. Bachelor, Wm. Adams, J. Babb, J. Kelly, and Wm. Eckels, was then appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, which reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were adopted by acclamation: "Whereas, a sound principle inherent in man to sustain himself under every adversity or vicissitude of life, which is also guaranteed to him by our Government, in the preservation of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We feel it alike incumbent upon us, as a party, to sustain the principles thereof, and rejoice while we proclaim to the world that the principles of our party are those which secure the greatest good to the greatest number. The Democratic party, entertaining such views, invite others to unite with them in sustaining and disseminating them. From former results we feel satisfied that a great majority of the voters of this county sustain similar views, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the management of the government in their hands, and really think it strange, the whole patriots (Whigs) flatter themselves in being able to make conversions from our party, sufficient to change the control of our now prosperous county, and thereby place the