

MEETING AT SHEPHERDSTOWN.
THE BALL IS ROLLING ON!

Agreeable to previous notice, a large and enthusiastic Democratic meeting was held at Shepherdstown, on Friday evening the 22d inst. The meeting was organized by the appointment of Samuel B. Benson, Sr., President, Adam Seebright, Jacob Ruppel, Moses Bricker, Joseph Black, George Wine, David Taylor, David Divinity, and David Cobler, Vice Presidents, D. K. Neill, George Eby, and Martin Brown, Secy. A committee consisting of Michael Cocklin, William Pickels, James McClune, J. T. Ayres, John W. Cooklin, Lewis Hyer, James Graham, John C. Dunlap, and Philip Uhler, were appointed to report resolutions. During the absence of the committee the meeting was ably addressed by J. H. Graham, Esq., of Carlisle, John K. Longnecker, of Reading, and R. A. Lamberton of Harrisburg. The committee reported as follows:

Whereas, It is one of the inalienable rights of the American people freely to assemble and to declare their sentiments upon all subjects which they may deem vital to their welfare, their prosperity, or conducive to the interests of a republican government; and

Whereas, The Democracy at their meetings, have always openly proclaimed their feelings and opinions upon the questions which may be involved in the policy upon which the government is administered; and have always fearlessly avowed their attachment to the measure which they deem to be the best for the government, and have struggled and have been successful in electing men to carry out those measures.

Resolved, That in the nominee of the Democratic party for the Presidency, we recognize a man eminent for his attainments as a scholar and a statesman—one unyielding in his allegiance to our principles—and one, in every respect qualified for the station at the head of affairs which he is destined to occupy. His long and indefatigable exertions in behalf of his country, will be remembered by the people at the polls on the 7th day of November next, when Lewis will be hailed as the President of the United States.

Resolved, That Gen. Wm. O. Butler, Kentucky's chivalrous and gallant son, is well worthy to be placed side by side on the same ticket with Gen. Cass, of Michigan, as our candidate for the Vice Presidency. He comes with character without affectation or reproach, no man has yet been found who has attempted to tarnish the fame of the patriot Butler.

Resolved, That the State Convention has placed in nomination for the office of Governor, one in every respect worthy of the honor, and the highest and upright farmer.

Resolved, That Israel, Painter is entitled to our support on the day of the election, and shall receive it.

Resolved, That James M. McLANAHAN is worthy of our support for the office for which he has been nominated.

Resolved, That we will support the whole County Ticket with a hearty good will.

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting are due to Messrs. Graham, Longnecker, and Lamberton, for the able manner in which they addressed them.

Resolved, That these proceedings be signed by the officers and published in the Democratic papers of Carlisle.

THIS invaluable medicine was prepared from an extensive practice of several years in a bilious climate, and is never known to fail of curing Fever and Ague, or any of the diseases above named.

Those who are suffering from affections of this kind, or also those who have become invalids from Cholera, or any of the diseases mentioned, will find the India Chaiologue a most valuable remedy for purifying the blood, and thoroughly cleansing from the system the morbid effects of a bilious climate.

Testimonials. The following are a few among the many testimonials of the great value of the Chaiologue. Their source is such as will at least entitle the medicine to a trial; and those who may thus be induced to its use will not be disappointed in its effects.

Extract of a letter from Messrs. Scattergood, Haverstick & Co., of Philadelphia. PHILA., 2d Mo. 24th, 1842. Dr. C. Osmond:—Respected Friend—We have had occasion to try the good effects of thy medicine in the case of a young man who had been troubled with chills a long time and could not get clear of them, but since he commenced taking a bottle of thy preparation has entirely recovered, and is now becoming quite stout. Respectfully thy friends, SCATTERGOOD, HAVERSTICK & CO.

From Rev. Charles Reighley, Chaplain of the U. S. Army, to the Agent at Detroit. DETROIT, Mich. 26, 1841. My Dear Sir:—I feel not the slightest hesitancy in saying that I consider the India Chaiologue an invaluable medicine in bilious affections. My reason is simply this; I have used it; and I have yet to learn many others have used it; and I have yet to learn the instance in which it has failed to effect a cure.

Among other distinguished individuals who have used this valuable remedy and recommended it to the confidence of the public, are Hon. W. L. G. Murray, Secretary of War; Hon. Wm. Woodbridge; Hon. Ross Wilkins; Hon. Wm. A. Fletcher, of the State of Michigan; Lewis Abbott, M. D.; J. H. Rathbone, Esq.; H. W. N. Y., Hon. S. P. Cary, Cincinnati; Hon. John A. Rockwell, Connecticut.

BUT little comment is necessary upon a plain, unvarnished certificate like the following—on a plain, as it does from one of the most respectable and worthy citizens of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., it must carry conviction with it, more especially when we consider the time that has elapsed without a return of the unpleasant symptoms—many of the certificates of the day being obtained after a few days' trial, when a momentary (or perhaps imaginary) relief has been obtained, without any permanent benefit. [This certificate we obtain from a respectable member of the Society of Friends.]
