A HICKORY POLE RAISED! The friends of Cass, Butler, Longstreth, Painte and the whole County Ticket, held a large and en thusiastic meeting at the house of Mr. Dolson, in New Cumberland on Saturday last, the 30th ult., for the purpose of raising a Democratic Pole. The following named gentlemen were appointed officers:

President.—William R. Gorgas, Esq. Vice Presidents.—Henry Church, Col. Hyer, Col. Feeman, Thos. Haller, Thos. Coleman, J. K. Boak,

Secretaries—Col. J. J. Halderman, Adam Feomai Lewis Blair, Maj. Christian Hoffman,

After the Pole had been firmy planted, the meeting was ably and elequently addressed by Messrs. Carson and Lamberton, of Harrisburg, whose remarks were frequently and enthusiastically applauded.

committee on resolutions, viz-John F. Le Dr. C. W. Dehn, G. W. Hall, Jacob Heck, and John Hickernell, reported the following resolutions, which

Resolved, That in Levis Cass and William O. Butler, we have soldiers of undaunted courage, men of pure patriotism, statesmen of long experience and distinguished abilities—candidates overy way worthy of the principles which they are pledged to sustain. Resolved, That in Morris Longetriu and Israel. PAINTER, we have men of whom the descendants of Penn may be justly proud—honest, firm, and unflinching in the discharge of their official duties. They will be elected by an overwhelming majority.

Resolved, That we decidedly approve of the nomination of the Hon. James X. M'Lamman, as our Congressional candidate for this district. He is in all prespects qualified to fill the place soon to be made vacant by the political death of the present unworthy incumbed:

Resolved, That whether our antagoni t appears to us in the Church Burning garb of Nativism, or whether it has the cloak of ne-partyism thrown around it, (which like the mantle of charity, covers a around it, (which like the mantle of charity, covers a multitude of sins;) whether it comes to us as belonging to the Philanthropic Society of a country at war with the United States, and urging the people thereof to welcome our brave soldiers with "bloody hands and lospitable graves;" or whether with a spasmodic effort at patriotism, it seeks for some nock or corner in the army, where it may by chance "slay a Mexican;" whether it comes in one or all of these forms, we can see beneath the drapercey that is thrown around it, the cloven foot of Federalism, ready with its iron heel, to trample upon the most sacred instrument that wisdom and sagasity ever conceived or pen recorded. We behold also, beneath its many colored garments, the feet of that "same old coon," prepared with its vite claws to tear from the Constitution the only safeguard which the people have tution the only safeguard which the people have through their immediate Representative, the President, against hasty, unwise or unconstitutional legis

Resolved, That our ticket for County Officers is composed of men who cannot fail to give universal satisfaction; and we pleige to them our undivided support in the coming election.

Resolved, That with Such principles as we have promulgated to the world, and such men as we have to sustain those principles, there is in the vocabulary of the Democratic party on such word as fail. We will press onward until Federalism is crushed be neath our feet; and the herd of Buena Vista has surrendered.

ed, That the thanks of this meeting be tenappropriately addressed us on this occasion, and that by lands of George Beltzhover, Jacob Harman, Antho proceedings be published in the democratic pa-drew Irvine, and others, and containing about
