Having been applized of the nature of the Panacea, it affords me much pleasure to be able to recommend it as a valuable remedy for those chronic, constitutional and glaudular diseases, to which it is especially adapted. Those who are afflicited and require hedicine as an atterative, cannot obtain it in a more agreeable, active and uniform state, than is to be found in the Panaced. I have used it in several instances with decided success. Yours, &c.

Yet, not when on our bower the light reposes
In golden glory, wilt thou sigh for me:
Not when the young bec seeks the crimson roses;
And the far sunbeams tremble o'er the sea;
And when at ove the tender heart grows fonder,
Add the full soul with pensive love is fraught,
Then with wet liks o'er these sweet paths thoult
And, thrilled with love, upon my memory ponder
With tender thought.

And whon at times thy bird-like voice entrances
The listening throng with some enchanting lay,
If I am near thee, lot thy heavenly glances
One gentle message to my heart convey;
I ask but this—a happier one has tuken
From my lone life the clearn that make it Joar,
I ask but this, and promise thee, unshaken.
To meet that look of love—but, oh! 'twill waken
Such raptures here!
