

DIED.

On the morning of the 9th inst., at the residence of her son in Mrs. MANAGER CARSON, consort of Isaac Cuffman, dec'd, aged 50 years 2 months and 4 days.

On Sunday the 17th inst., at his residence in this town, EDWARD PHENIXMAN, an advanced age. In this borough, on the 15th inst., ALEX. daughter of Peter and Catharine Spahr, aged 2 years and 6 months.

The subject of the above notice was a lovely and interesting child. For one of her age she had a remarkable talent for music, and was able to recite a number of little songs. Shortly before death called her to her heavenly Father, she was heard to lip the words of some favorite verse. Fifteen minutes before she breathed her last, she repeated, in an audible voice, these words, and asked her parents to sing the verse— "Weep not for me when I'm laid low."

Her father and mother were present, and she was able to come to her senses from this world of trouble a brighter and better one. With the parents we were very sympathetic—the loss of their beloved child is a severe and trying affliction. Of their child and of them it may be said— "Weep not for me when I'm laid low."

Funeral services were held at the residence of the deceased on the 19th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M. Burial in the cemetery of the same name. Interment in the cemetery of the same name. Interment in the cemetery of the same name.

Dedication. The new Union Church recently erected in Philadelphia, Cumberland county, will be dedicated to the service of almighty God, with appropriate religious exercises, on Sunday, the 7th of January. The preparatory service will commence on the Friday previous. The Dedication Service will be held on the 7th of January. The public generally is invited to attend.
