VOL. 35.

CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1848.

The state of the s

onducted.
The Secretary, in concluding his report, bears full testimeny to the excellent organization of the department have been the statement, and to the valuable aid which its face in the statement and technique bureaus. He is suggests, however, the establishment of an additional bureaus, corresponding in its glaracter to the office of the Adjutant General of the army. The report toom the Adjutant General of the army. The report toom the Adjutant General of the army. The report toom in the statements and recommendations of mental interest, for which we must refer our readers to the department appears to be in a very flourishing marked ability, and exhibits in a clear light the accomplished Secretary's administrative talent and efficiency.

| Main |