LIFE OF GEN CASE. The Baltimore Argus says that a young member of the Baltimore Bar is preparing for the Press, a highly useful and valuable work, entitled "The Life, Speeches and Public Services of Gen. LEWIS CASS." It will contain a large amount of information connected with the earlier career of that distinguished statesman, with many valuable LAMBERTON: letters and memoranda, never before published. The author, through the kind assistance of several of Gen. Case's old personal and political friends, has been enabled to gather such material as will form a hand. some volume, and add to our fund of political information.

A GIFT FOR MR. Morse.—A gold brooch, studed Henry S. Evans, William F. Packer, Henry S. Evans, Samuel Fegely, to Mr. Morse, in honor of the electric telegraph, was entered, a day or two ago, at the Boston Custom house. The duties amounted $120.

It is understood now, upon the most reliable authority, that should Mr. Clay's health be good, the Legislature of Kentucky will certainly elect him to the United States Senate, to take his seat after the 4th of March next.
