Nothing material has occurred since my last date.

Descritions are less frequent, the Ohio having lost one man since her arrival here, and I think the disposition to desert is not so general; but that may the indicate the indicate of the sound, Mrs. Jane Wallace, in the 53d year of he present disorganized state of society out here.

- The worst forebodings of evil consequent upon the want of certain and energetic administration of justice in this territory are almost daily realized,— Within the three last weeks we have certain accounts Within the three last weeks we have certain accounts of fifteen murders. In one instance an entire household of ten persons—a respectable ranchere, his wife, two children, and six servants. The man, whose name was Reed, had been very successful in the diggings during the summer, and had returned to his home, near Santa Barbara, with a large amount of gold. His house was surprised by an armed party and the whole family, as above stated, were barbarously murdered, and the house rifled of its golden treasure. The perpetrators of this horrid deed are still at large; of the other five cases, four are highway robberies, committed on persons returning with way roberies, committed on parsons returning with gold from the mines. In a word, I may say with truth, that both persons and property are insecure in Upper California at this time; and I am sorry to add that, in all cases of outrage and violence, as yet discovered, emigrants from the U. States, disbanded volunteers, runaway sailors, and descriter from the volunteers, runaway sailors, and deserters from the army and navy, are believed to be the perpetrators.

army and navy, are believed to be the perpetuators.

The mutines, attended with unurder, to which I alluded in my letter No. 43, have been fully confirmed, and—not without good reason—has caused much uncasiness to shippers of gold from this coast.

To guard each and every vessel sailing hence with large sums in gold dust, would require every ship of the navy. The best that I can do is to keep the vessel of this squadron at soa as much as possible, byling between the coater. large sums in gold dust, would require every snip of the navy. The best that I can do is to keep the vessel of this squadron at sea as much as possible, plying between the ports most frequented by our usercantile marine. Enclosed is a copy of a circular (No. 6) which I have found it necessary to issue and make public, in the hope that it may have some tendency to prevent a repetition of such acts as have recently occurred on board the English schooner Amelia and the Chilian barque Adelina.

A recent arrival from Gallao reports that the Adelina had been taken into that port, and the mutineers, eight in number, promptly executed.

Adenia and cent taken into that port, and the mutineers, eight in number, promptly executed.

I had received a request from the governor of Valparaise, through Mr. Moorhead, our consul at that port, to arrest and safe keep the Adelina should I be fortunate enough to fall in with her on the Mexican coast, where it was supposed the mutineers might take her.

Take her.

I have the honor to be, your ob't servant,

P.S. Since the above letter was written, we have accounts of more murders—one in the town of Sc noma, and another in the vicinity. More Truth than Poetry.

There is indeed more truth than poetry in what the Harrisburg Keystone says on the subject of legslation now-g-days:

Let any firmer, mechanic or laboring man, taked up the huge volume of acts parsed at each session, and turn over the pages from the beginning to the cond, and see how many he can discover in which he has any interest. He will find them almost which ought never to have been passed. Yet every man in the community is taxed to keep up this legislative machinery between three and four months every year. This is a most prolific subject for the press, and in relation to which it might do more good than almost any other. The only subject of general interest to the people, requiring the attention of the present Legislature, is the general appropriation act, and some additional revenue acts, which are imperiguously demanded. Yet these will probably be left, for the pression, and then be hurried through in the most imperfect manner, or lost altogether for the wail of government, as much as we please, but unless they are made productive of sume good to the people, they are made productive of sume good to the people, they are made productive of sume good to the people, they are on up practical utility.

From the very moment that he was seriously specified on a second date, there was an intense feeling for alarm and terror amongst the friends of Gen. Taylor, throughout the whole State. The Louisville Courier took strong grounds against him—Mr. Barbour, a Whig member of the Kentucky senate, declared in his place that he would not vote for a man who would go to Washington determined to trule or ruin'—and some of the Tayloritee of the logislature held it in sorious consideration to attempt to defeat him, which was thwarted, as far as we learn, by the determination of the majority of the Democrats, in case such a contingency should arise, to vote for Mr. Clay, being well satisfied that the devil will be to pay the mountent he takes his seat in the Senate."

Incredible quantities of gold are even yet daily collected, and scarcely a week clapses without some new discovery of the precious metal more startling than any previous one. It is said that a small party of five or six persons, a few days since, struck upon a pocket, as they term certain deposits, from which, in two days, they obtained $30,000 of pure gold!

I have been living on shore at San Francisco now two weeks and have had ample opportunity for examining the subject, and I am more than ever satisfied that the disposal of the gold regions in the territory of California is the best, if not, the only practicable disposition that can be made of them in the present disorganized state of society out here.

Mr. George Spangler:
Sir—We have been using the Thermometer Churn I got of, you for some time and find it far superior to the old barrel churn for several reasons. First, great saving of time in getting butter the average time of churning being about fifteen minutes, (all weathers) we have got butter in the short space of ten minutes. Secondly, the butter when obtained is much firmer than when using my other churn. Finally, my folks say they would not exchange for any other churn and twice the original cost of the Thermomester churn.

Mr. George Spangler:
I have the Crowell Thermometer Churn you made for me in use at my place, and I do not hesitate to say that no farmer should be without it. Fifteen say that no farmer should be without it. Fifteen minutes is all the time required to make butter, and the value of this saving of time and labor consists in this—that it requires no more time at any one season than another, and that the temperature of the cream, necessary to make butter, is produced with certainty and without the admixture of worm or cold water with the cream itself.
