to its value from a distinguished physician. Read the following from Dr. Young, the eminent coulist.

Philada., Jan. 1847:

Messrs. Angre & Dickson, Gentlemen Having recommended in my practice, and used in my own family. Thomson's Compound Syrup of Tar and Wood Naphtharl have no hesitation in saying that it is one of the best preparations of the kind in use, and persons suffering from coughs, cold, affections of the throat, breast, etc. as prevalent at this season of the year, cannot use any medicine that will allay a cough or prevent consumption sooner than

"Be wise in time-'tis folly to defer."

A FFLICTED READ! Thousands are suffering with disease from which there is no difficulty in being speedily and permanently relieved, provided the right means are used. As every vice has its own punishment, so it would seem every disease has its remedy. This is true, and there is nothing in this life more certain than that the American Compound,

is the most speedy and certain remedy for all diseases of a delicate nature known to the world, adapted to every stage of the disease; sex and constitution, at all times and seasons; there is no fear of exposure, detention from business, not festriction in diet. From tention from business, not restriction in diet. From the certain and speedy relief that it gives, it is now the most popular remedy of the day. Ten thousand cases have been cured by it during the past year.—Prepared by a practical physician, the afflicted can rely with confidence on its curative powers over diseases of this character. Full directions accompany each bottle.
