Poetical.

BY MRS. WELSH.

VIOLA.

She has passed like a bird from the minstrel throng,
Her place in my heart, and her love in my song,
Yet the laurel wreath of the love's young,
The hopes of her spirit are crushed and are done,
As he the life of his love in her long hair found,
For the faintest sign of her passion's wound,
Were kissed from his lips by his rival's Death.

Light as a bird she has sprung from me,
Her heart as a quill—her song as a breeze,
Yet never again shall that voice be heard,
With its glad and sweet, like a singing bird,
That in sweetest whisper from her lips came,
That in sweetest whisper from her lips came,
That in sweetest whisper from her lips came,
That in sweetest whisper from her lips came.

Miscellaneous.

STRUGGLE BETWEEN LOVE, AMBITION, AND PATRIOTISM.

The following is a true story of Harold, one of the sons of the King, and a true story of the struggle between love, ambition, and patriotism.

THE NEW MILITIA BILL.

An act to revise the Militia System, and provide for the training of each county as shall be uniformed. Sec. 1.—Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, etc.

ARE THE PLANETS INHABITED?

Are the planets inhabited? It is a question which has long agitated the human mind, and for a solution of which we as naturally look to the science of Astronomy.

GOOD NIGHT!

Good-night! In the expression of kindness how sweet and soothing a sense is conveyed.

THE BEAUTY OF THE SKY.

It is a strange thing how little in general people know about the sky. It is the part of our life...

HOW ARE THE MIGHTY FALLING?

Louis Philippe has taken a private house in Northumberland street, London, from which he occupies when they come up from Claremont.

ANECDOTES OF JOHN JACOB ASTOR.

"Do you ever travel, Mr. Astor?" "I do not travel," said the young man, "I travel."

DEARLY RICH.

One of our parvenu ladies of our village, says the London Patriot, but would be wonderfully aristocratic in all domestic matters.

MISS KATE HUNTING.

Miss Kate Hunting, a fashionable lady, was at a ball, and she was very much complimented.

ROMANCE OF REAL LIFE.

A few days since a young man arrived here from one of the Eastern cities, in search of his father, whom he had never seen, the father having left the place of his nativity in England, before he was born.

WIFE OF A PARRISER OF MARRIAGE.

Joseph Cord, a pariser, who has made several marriages, was once again married to a young woman.

TRUTH.

How beautiful is Truth! In this naughty world where there is so much falsehood and deceit, whereby hearts are estranged, and deceptions, assaults and crimes engendered—how beautiful is thought, word and deed.

THE NEW YORK ELECTION.

With a prospect, a week ago, of the most encouraging character for carrying the city, the day of the election showed the Democratic party without spirit and entirely without energy.

ALL THE DECENCY.

We have been informed by a friend in whom we have every confidence, that a scene occurred at Washington, on the day of the inauguration of President Taylor, which was very disgraceful.

SOME QUOTES.

"If a 'no party' President, says the Boston Post, chooses every member of his Cabinet from the ranks of the rank and file of Whigs, what would the man individual have done if he had come into power as a party president?"
