Appointment by the President.

THOMAS CRITTENDEN, of Kentucky, son of the Senator Crittendon who made the above speech, to be Consul at Liverpool, in the place of Gen Armstrong, who was honest, faithful and capable, and who was removed for being a Democrat.

"It was the remark of a Roman Consu!, in an early period of that celebrated republic, that a most striking contrast was observable in the conduct of candidates for offices of power and trust, before and after obtaining them. However much the world may have improved, in the lapse of upwards of a thousand years since the remark was wards of a thousand years since the remark was made by the virtuous and indignant Roman, I fear that a strict examination of the annals of some of the modern elective governments would develope similar instances of violated confidence.
