French do not pllow any to pass; but the scarsity was confined chiefly to luxuries. Bread and ordinary articles are still in good supply. M. Desseps has left the city for the damp of Gen. Oudinot, but was expected back immediately. It was also understood that a deputation had been sent on the previous day to Gaeta, with proposals to the Pope to return under a very limited temporal rule, and with a total exclusion of the Cardinals from all political powers.

er. When Ledru Rollin appeared at the tribune, to debate the question before the Chamber, loud cries areas for the order of the day; but having attempt ed to persevere, and the cries growing louder, the President put on his hat, thus suspending the sitting. When business was resumed, the members of the left avowed their disapproval of the President's conduct, by the noisiest demonstration, and volumently. duct, by the noisiest demonstration, and vehemently applauding Ledru Rollin; in the midst of which the duct, by the noisicest demonstration, and vehemently applauding Ledru Rollin; in the midst of which the President stepped forward, and told the speaker that if the Assembly was threatened with invasion, it was only by him and his friends. Ledru Rollin then quitted the tribune, declaring that both he and, his party had been insulted, and that the liberty of speech was at an end. A tremendous uproar then rose on the left, and four of the Secretaries' youngest members of the House, stood up, and resigned their functions amidst the loudest applause from the Mountain. It would be difficult to give an idea of the seems that followed. Some of the extreme left arese, and were about to quit the Chamber in a body, when their colleagues induced them to resume their seats, and after a good deal of time had been lost in the confusion and tumult, the aged President stood up and declared, that he was ready, to rotract any expression of his which might have appeared offensive to M. Ledru Rollin.

The tumult then began to cease. M. Ledru Rollin once more addressed the House and demanded that a parliamentary inquiry should be instituted into the circumstances of which M. Clevon complained, but the Assembly, by a large 'majority, rejected the domand and nassed to the order of the day. The the circumstances of which M. Clevon complained, but the Assembly, by a large imajority, rejected the demand and passed to the order of the day. The adjournment took place at half past 6 o'clock.

The result of the elections in Algeria for which five members are returned, place M. Emile Giredin first on the list; and Henri d'Orleans, Duke d'Aumale, second. The votes given to the due d'Aumale were declared unconstitutional, in some of the elections, but not in others. Unless the decree of binishment is abroguted the Duke will be unable to sit. If he is prevented from sitting he becomes at amine his present. of binishment is accognized the boats will be unable to sit. If he is prevented from sitting he becomes at once a political martyr. It remains to be seen what the Legislative Assembly will do.

Henry Clay-Request to Resign.

Al a meeting of the citizens of Trimble county, Ky, held on the 29th ult, in the Court House, in the town of Budford, without any distinction of party the following resolutions offered by John Robert, Esq.

Be it farther Resolved, That the doctrines published to the world by the Hon. Henry Clay, in relation to emancipation, are calculated, if carried out, not only to violate the Constitutional rights of this Commonwealth, but groutly to injure the condition of the Slaves, by corrupting them.

Be it farther Resolved, As the sense of this mooting, that the commons of the said Henry Clay, now ing, that the opinions of the said Henry Clay, now trade manifest, upon the subject of abolition or emunication, that he is no longer a fit instrument to carry but the wishes and defend the rights of the good people of this Commonwealth in the Senate of the United States, and therefore, as the first act of the Legislature of Kentucky, he, the said Henry Clay, should be formally requested to resign his seat in the Senate of the United States.

Mr. Editor—Permit me to suggest the name of Major 15. M. Bibble, of the Borough of Carlisle, as a suitable person for the office of Major General of the 15th Division of Pennsylavania Volunteers. Major Biddle, as a very qualification for a commanding officer, as any qualification for a commanding officer, as any man who belonged to the old Carlisle Light Artilery can attest. He commanded that company for eight years, and the high state of discipline to which it attained, and at the same time his great popularity among his near show that he great popularity among his men, show that he would make a first-rate Major General.

yours, 8 months, and 4 days.

The decessed was a steadfast and consistent member of the Lutheran Church for many years. She has left a Jarge circle of friends and acquaintances, besides children, and the companion of her bosom, to mourn her loss. No lingering disease, but a sudden cossasion of life called her away; and as her transit was easy, we have every reason to believe that her reward is that of the righteous. In her death we have lost a friend who was an ornament to society, and to the church. Her husband has been bereaved of an affectionate and beloved wife, and her children of a kind and worthy mother. May the Lord sanctify this affliction to them and their numerous friends.
