Things in California,

As a friend remarked to me a few days since, "this is a small town with very large prices." Buard varies from 16 to 21 dollars per week; washing 8 dollars per dozen. A common lodging room—and none to be procured at that—rents for fifty dollars a month; stores and officer pent for from three lumdred to a thousand dollars per month. A "clean shave" costs Iwo dollars a game of billiards a dollars and this proket, in mibling a gin cooktail, is twenty-five tents! The old hotel, which two years ago rented for a thousand dollars per year, now rents for sixteen thousand. A new and capacious hotel called the "Parker House," built by Robert A. Parker, Esq., was opened a few weeks since with a splendid bull, and supper. This house is a credit to California, being the largest in the country. As a specimen of the high rent level, two billiard rooms in this house; containing four tubies, rent for twelve thousand dollars a year; two rooms and purpose of the same purpose, at six thousand each per annum, and the romainderiod building consists of dising rooms, lodging rooms and offices, which rent at enormous prices.
