From the Louisville Courier, Aug. 30. Bloody Affair at Bardstown

We received intelligence last night of a dreadful bccurrence, at Bardstown, the particulars of which are about these :

are about these: R. Logan. Wickliff, a young lawyor of that place, ind W. P. Gray, a blacksmith, have been upon un-friendly terms for some years, and have had no in-tercourse.of any, kind for a long time. Gray, last Sunday let a gentlemain have one of his horise to go to the country, and as the gentlemain returned ho mot R. L. Wickliff, who asked the use of the horise. met R. L. Wickliff, who asked the use of the horse to go to a religious meeting some miles distant. The grantleman let him have the horse, and acquainted Gray, the owner, with the fact, who remarked that Mr. Wickliff should not use his property, (or words to that amount,) and immediately mounted another horse and proceeded with a friend in quest of Wick.

Gray, the owner, with the fact, who remarked that Mr. Wickliff should not us obta groups, for words to that amount, and immediately mounted another horse and proceeded with a friend in quest of Wick-liff. When he arrived at the meeting house Gray found his horse hitched to a tree, and immediately found his horse hitched to a tree, and immediately to that an out returned with him to town. He had no words with. Wickliff is said to have been restly incensed when he missed tho horse and un-did not even see him. Wickliff is said to have been restly incensed when he missed tho horse and un-did threats sgainst Gray. The circumstances were periodily known, and commented upon in Bardstown, and all who know Wickliff and Gray expected a difficulty between them. Nothing however transpired between them. Nothing however transpired site, Wickliff camb oot of his office, nearly opposito, Gray's house, wirmed with a double bartel shot gran, foods reif grainst a looust tree, and fired, the discharge he did so., Wickliff discharged the second bartel, striking him either in the back or breast. Ho im-diting him either in the back or breast. Ho im-diting him either in the back or breast. Ho im-diting him either in the back or breast. Ho im-diting him either in the back or breast.
