Thou wert lovid than the morn of May, Possessod the brightest charms that youth adorn, But all these beautoes now have passed away; And all who knew them once are left to mourn.

For God hath laid the down to sleep, Like a pure pearl beheath the deep!

Like a pure pearl behealth the deep!. Look abroad, fond mother, upon the wive of sin ful men, and repine no more that God hath made; thy child an angel in the regions of bliss. Now his song is mingled with the thanksgiving of the blevit --sancified, safe, and secure from the stormy blevit of iniquity with him who is from everlasting i The long train of weeping friends gathered around the fresh dur grave. The coefficience is diverted to find resting place, in the vale of solitude and silence; the spirit of him who was loved here, had, fong ora: this, crossed the dark waters; and is safely land, ed upon the flowery coast of a world of fadeless bleom.
