ON Friday, the 12th of October next, at 12 o'clock M., in pursuance of an order of the Orphans' Court of York county, directed to the subscriber, administrator of David Cormany, deceased, late of Fairview township, York county, I will offer at public sale, on the premises, the following described property, late the estate of said David Cormany, to wit: A tract of land bounded by the Yellow Breeches creek, and land of George Leckly, Joseph Stuelker, and others, situated in Fairview township, York county, containing 106 Acres & 97 Perches, more or less, about 150 acres of which is cleared, and the remainder is covered with good thriving Chestnut and Oak Timber, and there is also a great quantity of Locust timber on it. The above tract is of the best quality of limestone Land, and is in a good state of cultivation. The improvements consist of a large two story Stone Dwelling House, upwards of 100 feet long, with a Wagon Shed under the entrance of the roof. Also, Wagon Shed and Corn Crib, with three story well, and other necessary out-buildings. The improvements are all good. There is also a large and never failing spring of limestone water in front of the house, and an Orchard of graded fruit.
The above property lies about 2 miles west of New Cumberland, the same distance west of the York and Cumberland Railroad, 4 miles from Harrisburg, and 2 miles south of the Cumberland Valley Railroad. There is four Grist Mills, four Saw Mills and a large quantity of lumber, and a well of excellent water. This farm is well worthy the attention of capitalists, as it possesses all the advantages requisite for farming purposes on a profitable and large scale. The above property has always been known as the Bowman Farm.
Any person wishing to view the property can do so by calling on the Widow or on John Machlin on the farm, or on the subscriber, residing in Cumberland county, 1 mile east of Mechanicsburg, the Shilohmstown farm. Admr. of David Cormany.
