

time, either upon seed sown, or in cultivating corn, invented by Wm. Morrison. We do not think this calculated to be a useful invention. In covering grain it certainly cannot compete with the "Drill," and for working corn we have seen better constructed cultivators, which would not be so easily choked with grass or weeds.

All of which is respectfully submitted, FED'K. WATTS, GEO. BRINDLE, ROBT. BRYSO, R. C. STERRETT, Wm. LINE, Jr.

Geo. Brindle expressed no opinion on the subject of ploughs, as his own was the subject of examination.

The Society take this opportunity again to urge upon the farmers of the County to take more interest in their annual meeting; and as it is their design to make an effort next year to get up a meeting which will excite more competition, they earnestly invite all mechanics and manufacturers to prepare for the meeting of next fall, when they design to have an exhibition which will be worthy of the county of Cumberland.

FED'K. WATTS, Pres't. RICHARD PARKER, Secretary.

Onto Right Side Up! The following appears to be the relative strength of parties in this state according to the result of the late election.

DEMOCRATS, 18
FEDERALISTS, 17
FREE SOIL (RANDALL), 17

HOUSE. DEMOCRATS, 26
FEDERALISTS, 26
FREE SOIL, 7

Thus it will be seen that if the Free Soilers go with the Democrats, as they did last winter, (and we can see no reason why they should not), the Democrats will have 2 of a majority in the Senate, 14 in the House and 16 on joint ballot. If they sit with neither party we will be in the ascendant, and if they go with the Whigs to a man, (which is not at all probable), it will make a tie vote in either House.

The vote on the new Constitution question was largely in favor of reform. In regard to this matter the late Ohio Statesman remarks as follows:—The friends of Reform in Ohio rejoice. The vote for a new Constitution is overwhelming, the false Telegraphic reports to the contrary notwithstanding. The Whigs—the old worn out, ultra Whigs—every where used every trick and stratagem possible to defeat the will of the people, and stir the reforms so much cherished in the State, but all to no purpose; their defeat is far greater than we had any reason to hope, but nothing to what would have been could there have been a fair expression of public sentiment.

A Small Business. The Department of State at Washington, has ordered the New York Herald off its files, in consequence of the exposure that paper is continually making of Mr. Clayton's blunders in diplomacy! This, says the Spirit of the Times, is one of the silliest pieces of retaliation the Secretary could have attempted, and it exposes the littleness of his mind, more than any of the foolish acts he has yet perpetrated, as the head of our Government on Foreign Affairs. The Herald, however, nothing daunted by Mr. Clayton's meanness, thus plainly tells him that "He requires good advice, and it shall be no fault of ours if he does not get it. We shall send him the Herald." He may take an appeal to Mr. Collamer; but he is bound to read the paper. The only "account" which we have to "transmit," is a very bad account of his diplomacy.—Let him settle it with Nicaragua, and we shall give him a clean receipt. Will he do it?"

For the Volunteer. Mr. Editor.—A man here got it happened to get hold of an instrument known as a Sextant, and amused myself taking the altitudes of the different public buildings of the town. As the publication of the results of my measurements may gratify the curiosity of some of your readers, I send you a copy. The measurements are from the ground to the top of the spire, in feet and decimals.

The height of the old Court House, was 93.973 ft. The Old Engine House, was 56.393 ft. The Second Presbyterian Church, 70.44 ft. The Episcopal Church, 84.18 ft. German Reformed Church, 72.93 ft. Methodist Church, 67.03 ft.

AUSTRIAN FEROCITY. Austria, notwithstanding it has conquered the Hungarians, or rather got the Russians to do what its own weakness could not accomplish, exhibits its ferocious nature, which is marked by its consciousness of its own inferiority. Mademoiselle de Medersbach, a Hungarian lady of influence at Rusburg, gives the following account of her own treatment after the surrender.—"I was suddenly taken," she says, "by Austrian soldiers from my husband and children, and, without any charge being brought, or any previous examination made, I was dragged into a square formed by the troops, and in the place where I rode, and in the presence of my population, which had been ordered to assemble, or me, not because I was my mistress, but because the whole tenor of my life deserved it, I was flogged with rods." "Furious at this dreadful act, my husband, who she describes as a man of the highest moral and intellectual qualities, shot himself. The people attempted to massacre the commanding officer, but he was protected by the troops. "My son," adds the lady, "who is only 18, was taken in Georgey's army, and has been sent as a common soldier. My wife is boundless, and it is only in the way to liberate my boy that I now live."

ARRIVED. On the 18th ult., by the Rev. A. H. Kremen, Mr. JAMES MULLIN, of Carlisle, to Miss CANON, of South Middleton.

On the 25th ult., by the same, Mr. ANTHONY SHUBART, to Miss ANN MILLINER, both of North Middleton.

DIED. In this Borough, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Greenfield, on the 26th ult., Mr. JOHN SIMON, in the 85th year of his age.

FOUND. In Main street, near the dwelling of Judge Watts, in this Borough, a valuable gold ring. The owner can hear of it by calling on the editor of the Volunteer.
