ANGER.

Where they Learn it.

Where they Learn it. "I don't see where my children learn such things," is one of the most common phrases in a mother's voabulgry. A little incident which we happened to be an oye witness to, may perhaps help to solve the onigma. We amiled a little at the time, but we have thought a good deal of it since, and we trust not without profit, "Bub," screamed out a little bright cycd girl, some-what under ally care of age to a wonvee one whe
