DISSOLUTION OF THE UNION.

From the address of Dr. George W. Bethume, late ly delivered at Cambridge, Mass., we extract the following paragraph t lowing paragraph t "Suppose, for one melancholy moment, that this beautiful economy of exchange were broken up; that the Western Valleys were shut out from the sea by adverse Governments; those on the coast wore hem-med into; their own narrow limits by hostile forts along the mountain ridges; that between the North and the South there were neither commercial nor mo-ral symputhy; that at every State line passports were demanded and a tariff set—who must not shrink from describing the turthle consequences the stor. domanded and a tariff sot-who must not shrink from describing-the terrible consequences; the stag-nation of trade; the constant feeds; the multiplica-tion of armies; the Cain like exterminating wars; the overthrow of haw by military dictators; the ut-ter ruin of all that makes us prosperous at house and respected abroad; the sure catastrophy, moral and national death! Oh i; that these who, for any reason, talk lightly of dissolving this Union, would consider the immensely greater evils which such a ropture would inevitable cause, the awful guilt it would bring upon themselves! Whatovor may be the cant of words, no lover of haw could ever kindle the cant of words, no lover of law could ever kindle the torch of such incendiurism, no lover of prace provoke such fratricidal slaughter, no lover of prace dom plot for such general slavery, no lover of God and inan undermine the eminent watch tower whose light is now sludding over the world such bright promises of a universal brotherhood.
