VOL. 36.

dear Emma, althibugh I much took that the consequence will be my ruin."

"God will protect you from the bold bad man."

The next morping it was known in Vickaburg that the "Yankee orator" had been chalenged and refused to fight. Accordingly, he was generally donounced as a coward—a word which at that day, and even or for the neither toliber of abbassin. As he passed through the sireois, in was astonished to witness the coldness manifested by his old acquaintances, and even professed friends, while the great mass. of the opple seemed to regard him with ineff ble contempt. "Yankee white liver," "boaster," "poltroon" were the sounds most frequently rung in his ears, especially when near the groceries, and there was one then on every terrace of the broken hills.

The their grew still, worse. About a week alterwards, Johnson met his victim in the public square, presented a cocked pistol at his heart with one hand, and belabored him unmercifully with a cowhilde which he grasped in the other. Röllstance at the moment was altogether oilt of the guards, presented a cocked pistol at his heart with one hand, and belabored him unmercifully with a cowhilde which he grasped in the other. Röllstance at the moment was altogether oilt of the guards, presented a cocked pistol at his heart with one hand, and belabored him unmercifully with a cowhilde which he grasped in the other. Röllstance at the moment was altogether oilt of the guards for immediate death. He thought of Emma and her sweet babe, and bore the castigation in silence.

After this, clients destrict his office and gentle-life—James Bowle, who fell only with the fall of the Alamo, when his red knife was drunk with the blood of Mexicans.

Render.—But the meral? You promised us a life—Jameb Bowle, who fell only with the fall of the Alamon when his red kalfe was drunk with the blood of Mexicans.

... AARON BURR AND HIS DAUGHTER.

Render.—But the meral? You promised us a moral?

Writer.—The same moral which lies at the bottom of all true atories, if they be read rightly. I give you this, and can give ne more—that the circumstances which make make make the both race thousances which make make their actions, as the history of many a New Englander besides poor Thomas, in the south, can attest. There is the property of the waste of the lightly accomplished and beautiful daughter Theo a desire of the waste which make men, make also their actions, as the history of many a New Englander besides poor Thomas, in the south, can attest. There is the server was a fall of Rore in the affects of vone prethating the strength condemn the decise of your prethating the strength condens the strength

| Cold | 10 | Cold

From the N. O. Delta. MIKE HOOTER'S FIGHT WITH A "BAR.

A Yazoo Sketch.

NO. 26. "Why, you see," said Mike, "he was the most ternationed, rapaign bar ever you see. The bars down on Big Black sint none of em a primin to him. That we had it, up and down, nip and tuck, who should and who should nt, till, you'der thought the very yerth a comin to an end.