THE VOLUNTEER

CARLISLE, THURSDAY, APRIL 4, 1850; John B. Bratton, Editor and Proprietor.

AGENOY. CPV. D. PALMER, Bag., isour suithoffixed agent for gro-carling alvertiseneous, receiving alberofptions and making collections for the American Volunteer, at his office. N. W. corner of Third and Chesnut streets, Philairliphia.

TO THOSE INDEBTED.

During the week of the April Court we shall ex pect those who know themselves indebted to this

Gon. Cass will accept our thanks for his at

Col. MATEER has withdrawn his name from the American Democret. He has our best wishes for his future success.

pect those who know themselves indebted to this thrown around me, and which, in nine cases out office for subscription, advertising, job work, &c. to of ten, are completely distorted, and probably distorted, and probably an incretenths of which could be satisfactorily experiment therefore appeal to those indobted, to come for, and therefore appeal to those indobted, to come for, and assist us to discharge our own obligations. We shall they easily during the April court, (if not before,) and tablished. Acting entirely under their direction, a tablished. Acting entirely under their direction, it have sealed my lips during the perind of my confidently expect a compliance with this request.

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

r . 1907

وأبساله والمعاقبين وواسة فليتوبو لسويا ليووية أسري

<text>