

FARMERS' HOTEL.

EAST HIGH STREET; CARLISLE, PA.
The subscriber, (late of the "Stone Tavern," Walnut Bottom Road,) respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that he has taken well known Tavern stand, in East High street, Carlisle, formerly kept by Mrs. Wunderlich, and that he is now prepared to accommodate Farmers, Peasants, Travellers, and all others who may favor him with a call, in the most accommodating manner.

His Stabling, which is large and convenient, will be in charge of a careful Oster.

He flatters himself that from his experience as an innkeeper, he will be able to render general satisfaction.

Cumberland & Perry Hotel.

Corner of North Hanover and North Sts., Carlisle; lately kept by Henry W. Orth.

The subscriber having leased the above large and commodious Hotel, situated on the corner of North Hanover and North Streets, lately occupied by H. W. Orth, begs leave to announce to his friends and the public, that he is prepared to entertain them in a manner which cannot fail to meet their approbation.

THE HOUSE is pleasantly situated, and by its beauty built. No pains will be spared to make those who may sojourn with him comfortable during their stay. His parlors are large and warm, and his chambers supplied with new and comfortable bedding.

His TABLE will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and all who are connected with his house will be found attentive, careful and obliging.

The BAR will contain the best Liquors the city can produce.

His STABLES are entirely new and extensive, capable of accommodating from 60 to 70 horses—making it a desirable stopping place for Drovers, and will be attended by a skilful Oster. In short, nothing will be wanting to add to the comfort and convenience of those who may favor him with their patronage.

Boarders taken by the week, month, or year.

Terms moderate.
