AT $200 PERANNUM.

VOL. 37.

CARLISLE, PA, THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1850.

NO. 3.

first step towards a reconciliation ought to be nrat step towards a reconcitation ought to be made by you."

Never! And the little lady stamped upon the floor with her tiny foot, and draw up her petite form with an air of offended dignity.

"What am I to understand by that?" equired Anna.

Why, that your very state of mind proves you to be in the wrong, and that from you offers of reconciliation must come, before the present unhappy relations can cease.

appy relations can cease."

Then they will never cease."

Say not so, dear—
Forgive and forget. Oh! the carth would be lonely,
The garden a wildernoss made to deform,
If the flowers but remembered the chilling winds only,
And the earth gave no verdure for fear of a storm.

concile the difficulty. Had she done so, al would have been quickly forgiven and forgot n.'

No doubt of that. I blame her most.'
I must see her to-night,' said Alice.
It is too late now.'
No. I must see her before entering the par-Say not so, dear—

Say not so, dear—

Forgive and forgat. Oh! the certs would be lonely, The garden a wilderness made to deform.

If the flowers but remembered the chilling winds only, and the earth gave overdure for fear of a storm.

Repeat these beautiful lines until the cloud wilfully done her no injury, and believing that all would, in due time, come right. To-day I wilfully done her no injury, and believing that all would, in due time, come right. To-day I would have ask me to do what is impossible!

How so 1'

How so 1'

How so 1'

No. I must see her before enteging the parious place of the gay company there assembling the parious place. In think—I'd rather stsy—where—I'm better acquainted."

MATRIMONIAL BERZZES.—Arrah, Pat, and why did different about the matter, knowing that I had willfully done her no injury, and believing that all would have a caused it to be buried there; soon after company there are acquainted."

A BULL.—A poor woman, who lived in the old would never see in the same time exhibiting less excitement, 'you ask me to do what is impossible!'

How so 1'

How so 1'

How so 1'

NATRIMONIAL BERZZES.—Arrah, Pat, and why did different about the matter, knowing that I had will all would never see in the same time of the caused it to be buried there; soon after command the place and the purpose of the same time of the caused it to be buried there; soon after command the caused it to be buried there; soon after of "an international the place and the purpose of the same time of the caused it to be buried there; soon after of "an international the place and the place and the purpose of the caused it to be buried there; soon after of "an international the place and the pla You ask me to violate my own self-respect.

No, I only ask you to regain it.'
I have not lost it,' replied Anna, again drawing herself up proudly.
A different state of mind will give you a different state of mind will give you."

Note that the evening. But such as well not come—and all on this account! I must see the read once. Your house is only in the next block. I will not account! I must see the read of the evening. But such as well as we ing horself up proudly.

A different state of mind will give you a different view of the case. The first cause of the difficulty was a triffing matter, and your error in noticing it all is the ground of all this unhappy feeling on both sides. I am satisfied the girls meant you no til will.

No girls of any principle would have said what they did.

I will not assent to that, Anna. We often asy things on the spur of the ogosalon that are wrong. To set from a want of principle is to act deliberately. No, no, my child; the young felt. There were particular reasons why she wished him to fork over the openior for them.

Western orators have said a great many smart things, but it was a home sick frishman who him, and be principle with you, and said a great many smart things, but it was a home sick frishman who had, and the Lord only knows whether i will or not—my sows shall see swate Ireland beford it laves.

And Alice, putting on her cloak and hood, and tried to with pages of the book she bent over had no power to absorb her, attention. There was an oppose to absorb her, attention of the opposition in the Navy have actually taken in the case of the opposition in the Navy have actually taken in the case of the opposition of the opposition of the opposition in the Navy.

By John Bubier, of his commission of Commandary.

done me great injustico.

'Anna says that you called her a proud, vain, ill-tempered girl,'

'How wrong for any one so to change the meaning of a light and almost thoughtless remearing of a light and almost thoughtless remearing of a light and almost thoughtless remearing that Anna was hort. I do not wonder that Anna was hort. I only regret that she did not meet my effort to resconcile the difficulty. Ilad she done so, all would have been quickly forgiven and forces.

Never do anything that can denote an angry mind; for although every body is born with a certain degree of passion, and from untoward circumstances will obly in the called for "something to drink."

'"We don't sell injour," said the 'saw abiding land-love the world will to be discovered. Chock and restrain it; never make any determination until you find it "Very well," said the 'saw abiding land-love was a called for "something to drink."

"We don't sell injour," said the 'saw abiding land-love will give you a glass, and then if you want a creaker, we will active to you for three cents."

"Very well," said the 'saw abiding land-love was a called for "something to drink."

"Very well," said the 'saw abiding land-love was a called for "something to drink."

"Very well," said the 'saw abiding land-love was a called for "something to drink."

"Very well," said the 'saw abiding land-love was a called for "something to drink."

"Very well," said the 'saw abiding land-love was a called for "something to drink."

"We don't sell injour," said the 'saw abiding land-love was a called for "something to drink."

"We don't sell injour," said the 'saw abiding land-love was a called for "something to drink."

"We don't sell injour," said the 'saw abiding land-love was a called for "something to drink."

"We don't sell injour," said the 'saw abiding land-love was a called for "something to drink."

"We don't sell injour," said the 'saw abiding land-love was a called for "something to a light on "something to a light on "something to a light on "something to a light

Western orators have said a great many smart

| CARDING | CARDING | P. | CARDING |

ototA Jerseyman was very sick, and was not expected to recover. His friends got atound his bed, and one of them says—
"John, do you feel willing to die?"

John made an effort to give his views on the sub. "Well, no," said the Yankee, "I guess not; you ject, and answered with his feeble and wesk voice—
"I—think—I'd rather stay—where—I'm better acquainted."

Marking—In Newport; 3d inst., by the Rev. Dr. Chouloris, Mr. George II. Darling, of this city, and Marking—In Newport; 3d inst., by the Rev. Dr. Chouloris, Mr. George II. Darling, of this city, and Marking—In Newport; 3d inst., by the Rev. Dr. Chouloris, Mr. George II. Darling, of this city, and Marking—In Newport; 3d inst., by the Rev. Dr. Chouloris, Mr. George II. Darling, of this city, and Marking—In Newport; 3d inst., by the Rev. Dr. Chouloris, Mr. George II. Darling, of this city, and better a stay of crackers, with the remark:
"You'll buy a cracker?"
"Well, no," said the Yankee ensured him a dish of crackers, with the remark:
"You'll buy a cracker?"
"Well, no," said the Yankee ensured him a dish of crackers, with the remark:
"You'll buy a cracker?"
"Well, no," said the Yankee ensured him a dish of crackers, with the remark:
"You'll buy a cracker?"
"Well, no," said the Yankee ensured him a dish of crackers, with the remark:
"You'll buy a cracker?"
"Well, no," said the Yankee ensured him a dish of crackers, with the remark:
"You'll buy a cracker?"
"Well, no," said the Yankee ensured him a dish of crackers, with the remark:
"You'll buy a cracker?"
"In think—I'd rather stay—where—I'm better acquainted."

Marking Post.

Marking

John Lang was engaged in "raising" a meeting house, and lost his life by a falling timber, and his epilaph reads as follows:

On the 25th of September,

A big stick of timber
Fell, slam bang,

And killed poor John Lang.

chained tiger. "Old Zack, God bless him, is winning golden opinions."—Boston Atlas:

alt is his cabinet who are winning the gold—"Old Zack" only receives his regular wagen.

Boston Post.

A lazy boy out in Indiana spells Andrew Jackson thus :- &ru Jazn.

"Tommy," said a doling father, a little fight, to his son—"Tommy, hio—my boy, mind your daddy, and ever walk in his—hio—footsteps."

"That might do, perhaps, replied the juvenile, his to demand their age.

cessary in consequence of the act passed by the last! Legislature, making it unlawful for any person to pay out any notes of this kind for tax or licenses.

A VALUABLE DISCOVERY.—The Boston Transcript says persons in Boston and New York have purchas-ed the right to use Palva invention, by which light, heat, and motive power are said to be produced. It Tt is understood that Mr. Pain has disposed of hits It is understood that Mr. Pain has disposed of his proprietary right to his discovery for a sum which may at first seem inoredible, but a momente consideration will show that the purchasers will have got a good bargain if all that is said of the dupabilities and cheapness of the light can be established. The terms of purchase are reported to be ten millions of dollars—half, a million doton.

Mrs. Partington, upon reading in the Pest that the Boston Light Guard appeared that evening in "unders uniform," said "well if soldlers will go naked I am glad they don't train in day time, I am."

A lazy boy out in Indiana spells Andrew Jackson thus:—&ru'Jazn.

The bill to sholish capital punishment failed in the Connecticut Senate by one vote.

Gen.:Wool is named as a Democratic candidate for the Governorship of the State of New York.

I wanted to go into a corkscrew or Virginia fence business." The paternal guardian raised his cane, but Tommy dodged it.

The meanest men we were heard of, was one who but Tommy dodged it.

Barnum has the skin of Galphin, stuffed, in his museum. Galphin's heirs, in revenge have akinged Taylor as a political humbug, and a violate of all the people of the United States and stuffed them his pledges. The paper new first the Democratic selves.