VOL. 37.

CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, AUGUST 1, 1850.

THE AMERICAN VOLUNTEER,

is published every Thursday, at Carlisle. Pa. by JOHN I BRATTON, upon the following conditions which will be sigidly adhered to:

THE ADERICAN VOLUNTERS

The state of the product of

POPPING THE QUESTION

Who has not in one form or another, laid up in the store house of memory, some of the deeds of daring and devility, of this bold outlaw and his metry men? And who especially, that has appreciated the beautiful sylvan pictures in which they are grouped by Scott, with Sherwood Forest fok a back ground, advises all young men to get married, and tells them in "Ivanhee"—will not pause with us at the grave of Robin Hood, thus described by a traveller, in a late raumber of the N. Y. Knickerbocker?

THE PUETRY MACHINE.

THE LIAR.

"More copy, sir."
"More copy, sir."
"More copy, sir."
"The devil you do! How much do you say?"
"Four stilks, sir."
"Four stilks, sir."
"Four stilks, sir."
"All right, sir."
"All right, sir."
"All right, sir."
"The is a man in the Naw. York penitentiary, who has had twenty-seven wives. He is just been well. said that there is no rule without an exception, and it was our misfortune, in our travels some years since, to meet with rige acception on Mrs. Opie'strule." The creature we billude to was emphatically the Prince'of Liars."—It was one of your incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little" for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little" for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little" for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little" for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little" for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little" for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little" for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little" for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little" for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little" for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little "for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little "for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little "for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental liars, who occasionally "fib a little "for mere amusement sake, nor a liar of convenience, not incidental

"Stop! stop! that's a mighty leap from the sublime! Turn a little slower! commence."

"I'was night, and the gloomy darkness had her cbon veil minuried.

And nought remained but gas lamps to light op this cre world.

The heavens frowned. Her twinkling orbs, with silvery light chlowed.

Were all occult, on t'other side a thunderin' big black cloud,
Pale Luna, too, shed not her beams upon the motly groups.

contact.

At length he died, and as the terrified villagers lowered him to his final resting place, they held their breath in auxious dread until the clode had completely covered his hateful corpse, lest even his death should prove a lic.

Years afterward, when passing by the little and the black, has been manufactured in England. It is composed of chlorate of potash, loaf and gray, and prussiate of potash.

Wm. B. Astor, the heir of John Jacob Astor has been fined $98.

his death should prove a lie.

Whis death should prove a lie.

When B. Astor, the heir of John Jacob Astor, has been fined $25 by the city of New York, for not removing filth from the rear of his houses.

Spectrum a coop Workman.—Some thirty, in order to make room for the foundation walls of a new church, this remains were removed, it was ascertained that even the loathsome grave-vorm had refused to feed many his asset.

The Portsmouth Journal is guilty of the following:

An old gentleman in a neighboring town inissed from his vines some luscious grapes, which he suspective of the members. It is suggested that printing is appeal, for one column by paid by the member of the member of the member of the suspective of the members, it is suggested that printing is appeal, for one column by paid by the member of t and specify the six in the labor. As a contract of the service of the specified of the street of the service of the service of the street of the service of the service of the street of rapidly taking the place of stone turnpikes in alnost every direction. BALTIMORE Monals. A riot occurred last week, in which several persons were shot-two or three seriously. Liebig, the eminent German chemist is coming to the United States for the purpose of giving lec-

Varieties.

Horace Greekey has won the Silver"Cup" offered by Y. B. Palvien, for the best easay on Advertising.

Advertising II ... Dnowner ... Mr. Hayes from Lancaster, Pa., was drowned in Trinidad Bay, California, in May

! Men are always murmuring at the hardships of this world, yet how they dread to leave it.

Gen. Tom Thumb weighs two pounds less than Spoiling A good Workman.—Some thirty years ago, a Mr. Mynders, of Senega Falls; remarked to a friend who was residing with him, "Look at that young man, just passing—he is the best workman in my shop, and I am sorry to say that lie is now going to make a fool of himself, by leaving a good trade to study law." That young man, Millard Fillmore, is now President of the United States,

EDUCATION AND TOBACTO.-It costs more to gratify a penchant for tobacco, than it does to educate all the children in the United States. Howeld is it with rub, gla, whiskey, and a thousand other strong drinks which brutify man's nature?

there will be no beauty and in autumn no fruitriper years will be contemptible, and old age mis-

"Ma, that nice young man, Mr. Sauftung, is very fond of kissing." "Mind your seam, Julia; who told you such nonsense?" "Ma, I had it from his own lips." "I am like Balaam," said a dandy on meeting a pretty girl in a passage, "stopped by an angel."

"And I am like the angel," said she, "stopped by an ass."

Fourth or July Toast, —"Old Buckelors—
Fourth or July Toast, —"Old Buckelors—

Leafless trunks in a garden of roses. Each dwelling is to them a suggestion; each bird's nust a standing admonition." Mrs. Margaret Shundon, in her ohe hundred and fourth year, died at Circleville, Ohio, a few' days since. She emigrated to this country from Scotland about the time of the Revolution.