Introductory Lecture on French. ONSIEUR V. VALUE has the high gratifica-tion of announcing that, having devoted many years to the investigation of French Pronunciation and to the tuition of the language, he has arrived at certain results which enable bin to impart an accu-rate and elegant pronunciation of the French lan-guage in TWEEVE LESSONS. However strange the guige in twelve heads in those accustomed only announcement may appear to those accustomed only to the ordinary modes of teaching the pronunciation of the language, it is no longer a matter of experiment: it has been done. A free lecture will be delivered by him, on Thurs day, Aug. 22, at 74 o'clock in the evening, at Edu-cation Hall, preparatory to the formation of classes, both for the pronunciation alone and for a course of regular French tuition. The inhabitants of Carliele out winding are resulted at the state of regular French toilion. The inhabitants of Carlisle and vicinity, are respectfully invited to attend. The following citizens have kindly permitted him to refer to them, W. M. Biddle, Esq., Mr. G. W. Hitner, Rev. M. E. Johnson, and Capt. H. K. Long, U. S. N. Aug. 22, '50.
