Notice is Hereby Given

That every person, excepting Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the United States, or of this State, or any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioner of officers or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive, or judicial departments of this State, or of the United States, or of any city, or of any incorporated district; and also that every member of Congress and of the State Legislature, and of the Executive Council, and every commissioner of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector, or Clerk of any election in this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector, Judge or other officer of such election shall be eligible to be then voted for.

And the said act of Assembly, entitled an act relating to elections in this Commonwealth, passed July 24, 1850, further provides as follows, to wit: That the Inspectors and Judges shall meet at the respective places provided for holding the election in the district to which they respectively belong, before 9 o'clock in the morning of the 24 Tuesday of October, and each of said Inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

In case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for Inspector, shall not attend on the day of the election, the highest number of votes for Judge at the next preceding election shall stand as Inspector in his place; and in case the person elected as Inspector shall not attend, then the Inspector who received the highest number of votes shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election; and if such person shall not appear, the Inspectors or other qualified voters of the township, ward or precinct, or of the place of election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

It shall be the duty of the several assessors respectively to attend at the place of holding every whole time election, and to keep open, for the purpose of giving information to the Inspectors and Judges when called on in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, or other such matters in relation to the election, and to be ready to attend at the place of election at all times to the time to time required.

No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid, than a white freeman of the age of twenty years or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year immediately preceding the election, and who shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election.

It shall be the duty of the Inspectors to receive and certify to the United States, and to the State, and to the County, the names of all persons who shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election, and to certify to the United States, and to the State, and to the County, the names of all persons who shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election, and to certify to the United States, and to the State, and to the County, the names of all persons who shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election.
