Union Count.y-The Whige in Union county have Tutor Court. The Whige in Union county have been most gloriously beaten in their nomination for Frothonotary. The regular Whig candidate was mamed Haus; the literal rendering of which, we are fold, is Rabbit. The successful competitor was named Eyster, or, in English, Oyster, so then it would been that Oysters are preferred before Rabbits in Uniquical County. There must be something very rotten at the fountain head when Whiggery can be beaten in their regular nominations in Union county. There was a fact in connection with the result their regular nominations in Union county. There is another pleasing fact in connection with the result of the election in Union county. Our readers will of the election in Union country. Our readers will recollect that the Whig journals took great pains to impress the fact that Henry W. Snyder, their candidate for Auditor General, and a resident of Union country, was a son of Gov. Snyder, and formely a Democrat. They had hoped this would secure him Fgood many. Democratic voice. The contrary of lifet expectations has been realized, and Mr. Henry W. Snyder does not get his own party vote at home. This is an important fact, and goes to show that rengales are not forgotion by the people at the ballot bottes. Men seldom leave the Democratic party without expecting to realize some pecuniary roward for it, and we could wish that they might always meet, with the same success that has rewarded Henry W. Snyder, the degenerated son of a noble stack.
