GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR 1851.

MRS. S. J. HALE, AND L. A. GODEY, EDITORS.
The Lady's Book is an Art in itself.
The universal voice of the Press has pronounced this publication at the head of American magazines. The publisher in obedience to the public voice, means to keep it there; he has the ability and inclination to do so. As long as advertisements are sold on record, the publisher of the Book means to be as brief as possible. By reference to an advertisement published on the cover of the Book, a specimen of which will be sent to any person requesting it, postage paid; it will be seen what it is to be done in 1851. It will abound in Line, Stipple, and Mezzotint Engravings, and Colored Plates.

The list of plates advertised by us, are all steel, not a wood cut amongst them. When you see a list of plates advertised—inquire what they are before you subscribe.
It will have an undoubted
AMERICAN FASHION PLATE IN EACH NUMBER.
No lady can make a dress to suit her more refined taste, and be in the fashion, excepting from "Godey's Reliable Fashions."

THE MODEL COTTAGES
Will be continued, and in every No. will be something new for
THE LADY'S WORK TABLE.
Such as knitting, netting, crochet, patch work, leather ribbon, chenille and collar work for children's and infant's clothes, caps, aprons, chemisettes, and in fact everything that will please the ladies.

UNDOUBTED RECEIPTS AND NEW MUSIC.
Will also be given regularly.
AMERICAN AUTHORS.
Both male and female, will grace the work by their contributions. In fact, performance, not promise, is the peculiar talent of the Publisher of the only Lady's Book published in America. The Proprietor of the Book having conducted it for nearly 21 years, considers his own age, and the age of the profession, as a caterer for the amusement, and information of the ladies of his own country.

A FEW NOTICES.
For its great encouragement to American Writers, it should be found in the parlor of every family in the land—Ohio Western Empire.
Of all the magazines that have come under our notice, this is decidedly the handsomest and the best.
The Lady's Book is the best and most highly priced magazine of the kind in the country.
Newburg Courier.
Mr. Godey is evidently in the van of the publishers of his class in America. His taste, his judgment, his beautiful engravings and choice literary matter, endear it to the friends of every cultivated family it visits.—Tenn. Chronicle.
Godey's Lady's Book is certainly one of the most handsome and complete publications of the kind, in this or any other country.—Lutheran Observer.
It is splendid, superb and unapproachable.
Phil. Saturday Courier.
It has the most superb engravings, and contains better literary matter than any other magazine in the world.
Scott's Weekly Paper, Philadelphia.
It should be welcomed into every family as an agreeable and appropriate companion for the youthful and the innocuous.
Republic, Washington, D. C.
Its editor, Mrs. Hale, a lady of genius and great taste, is devoted to the improvement and elevation of her sex on christian principles, and is careful to exclude from the pages of her Book, every thing of doubtful tendency on the score of taste and morals. We rejoice that a magazine so widely circulated is in safe hands.—New York Christian Observer.
