Surraton Tras.--- We are indebted to the kindnes of Mr. N. W. Woons for three packages, samples of his Hyson, Imperial, and Bluck Teas, which are of a very superior quality and most delightful flavor .-These specimens are from the celebrated Importing Tea Store of JENEINS & Co., Philadelphin, and are hopt for sale by Mr. Woons at his store in North Hanover street. Our " better half," who is a connoissour in such matters, pronounces them all excel lent, in which opinion we fully acquicace. TEA is a bevorage fit for the gods; it southes the trouble a prometer of good feeling and friendly gossip, particularly among the ladics. Call, therefore, at Woons's Store, and judge for yourselves, by testing the merits of his Teas.

ANOTHER MANMOTH .- Major A. A. LINE has pre sented us with another manmuth vegetable, in the shape of an immense Radish. This radish is twenty ens inches in circumference, and weighs eight pounds and nine ounces ! This radial is certainly " some pumphine," and if our Agricultural Society were yet in existence, would entitle the Major to a handsome of a more than ordinary growth and quality, should procure their scede and plants of Major LINE.

RE-BUILT .-- We perceive that Mr. ROBERT LAIRD. of the Washington Hotel, on South Hanover sirce whose stabling was consumed by fire some week since, has already erected an entire new and commodious stable, and is now again prepared to accomme date Drovers, Travellers, and all others who may favor him with a call. The promptitude with which this work was got under way and completed, shows that Mr. Laird is an enterprising publican, and wor thy of patromage.

MANTING OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE .- Th gentlemen composing the Democratic Standing Com mittee of this county, will remember that a meeting of the Committee is to be held at the public house of that every member of the Committee will be presen on that occasion. For names of the persons composing the Committee, see notice immediately under our editorial head.

AMOTHER FIRE !- Melancholy Loss of Life !- On e clock, our citizens were again aroused from their slumbers by the startling cry of Finz! On proceed John M. Dick, completely enveloped in flames, and every effort to save it utterly unavailing. Before any adequate assistance could be rendered, the unhappy inmator, consisting of Dick, his wife, and -daughter (a woman grown,) were, melancholy to relate, literally burned to death ! Their bones were gathered together, and at an early hour consigned to one common grave. This sudden and most melancholy casualty, so unusual in our town and seighborhood, has appalled the most thoughtless, and pursue as a nation." general opinion as to the origin of the fire is, that Dick, who slept in the lower room, and was in a very elgiess state, he being paralytic from the effects of paisy, and being an inveterate amoker, had unconaciously fired his bed by means of a pipe. Being incapable of making any exertion, or giving the alarm, the women, who slept up stairs, were not aware of their danger until it was too late to escape, and they all thus perished miserably together. The roofs and timbers of the adjoining buildings, being completely saturated by the copious rains which fell during the last week, were saved without much dif. fleuRy.

WILLIAN B. UNDERWOOD, Esq., a gentleman lon and favorably known to almost every politician and public man in Cumberland county, as a velaran poi litical editor, departed this life at his residence, in On the subject of the Tariff, the President ad this borough, on Baturday morning last, the 7th inst., it the advanced age of 72 years.
