

violates its integrity, to disturb the compromise on which it is based, or to resist the laws which have been made under its authority.

The office of measures to which I have alluded are regarded by me as a settlement, in principle and substance, of a final settlement of the dangerous and exciting subjects which they embrace. The rest of these subjects, indeed, are beyond your reach, as the legislation which disposed of them was, in its character, final and irrevocable. It may be presumed, from the opposition which they all encountered, that none of these measures was free from imperfections, but, in their mutual dependence and connection, they formed a system of compromise the most beneficial and best for the entire country that could be obtained from conflicting sectional interests and opinions.

For this reason, I recommend your adherence to the adjustment established by these measures, and your firm and experienced aid demonstrate the necessity of further legislation to guard against evasion or abuse.

By that adjustment we have been rescued from the wide and boundless sea of anarchy and anarchy, and have a firm, distinct, and legal ground to rest upon. And the occasion, I trust, will justify me in exhorting my countrymen to rally upon and maintain that ground as the best, if not the only means, of restoring peace and quiet to the country, and maintaining inviolate the integrity of the Union.

And new, fellow-citizens, I cannot bring this communication to a close without invoking you to join me in humble and devout thanks to the Great Ruler of Nations for the multiplied blessings which He has graciously bestowed upon us. His hand, so often visible in our preservation, has stayed the pestilence, saved us from foreign wars and domestic disturbances, and scattered plenty throughout the land.

Your liberality, religion, and civility have been maintained; the fountain of knowledge has been kept open, and means of happiness widely spread, and generally enjoyed, greater than have fallen to the lot of any other nation. And, while deeply penetrated with gratitude for the aid which He has given us, we have a firm, distinct, and legal ground to rest upon. And the occasion, I trust, will justify me in exhorting my countrymen to rally upon and maintain that ground as the best, if not the only means, of restoring peace and quiet to the country, and maintaining inviolate the integrity of the Union.

DOUBLING HALL.
Select Classical Boarding School.
White Sulphur Springs Doubling Gap, Camb. Co., Pa.

Having for some time been desirous of establishing a Select Boarding School, and having at length obtained suitable buildings for that purpose, the subscriber takes pleasure in announcing to his patrons and friends, that he will open the above-named institution on the 1st of October.

The location is a small and romantic vale formed by an S shaped bend of the North Mountain, aptly termed "Doubling Gap," and is not surpassed in healthfulness of situation and beauty of scenery by any place in the country. The Main Building is large and commodious, 100 feet in length by 44 in breadth, and 3 stories high, and is well furnished with everything necessary to convenience and comfort. The other buildings compose Bath Houses, &c., to the free use of which the pupils will have access at proper hours.

The object of the Institution is to fit young men for business, or for any of the higher classes of College. The course of instruction will be thorough and complete, more attention being given to the quality than to the quantity in the performance of the student. All the branches taught in the best academies will be taught in this, and proper apparatus will be used for illustration of the subjects that require it. Classes in Civil Engineering will enjoy the advantage of operations in the field with Transit, Compass, Chain, &c.

Board, tuition, washing, fuel and lights, 350 00
Latin and Greek, 5 00
French or Hebrew, 5 00
Civil Engineering with use of Instruments, 10 00

such as Black silks, serge de Indes, figured, striped, and plain cashmeres; moussin de laines, mohair and silk lusters, plain black and changeable alpaca, new style calicoes and chintzes, cloths and cassimeres, satinettes, Kentucky jeans, &c. An assortment of men's and boys' clothing of all kinds and prices; muslins, tickings, checks, table diapers, &c.

Cheap Clothing!
Hang out your banners!
Here they come! here they are!
What's the matter? what's the matter?
Only look at the crowd!
Come on Joe, Jim and Sam Hatter;
Let us see what's come!

Oh, no boys, no fuss at all,
Only another great arrival,
Of beautiful clothing for the fall,
At M. & L. STERNER'S Clothing Hall!
I have just bought a suit so fine—
'Tall me, how do you like it Joe?
Don't you want one like mine?
Come on, boys, let us go.

Now let me tell you,
What there you can find,
Coats of all colors,
And Pants of all kinds.
Waistcoats so handsome,
And Cravats so nice,
And they will not think it troublesome,
If you give them a call twice or thrice.

They will wait on you with kindness,
And they give you quality and cheapness,
You can only find at
STERNER'S, West Main Street, next door to Burkholder's Hotel.
M. & L. STERNER respectfully invites the attention of their friends and the public generally, to their large lot of Goods that have been purchased at a great sacrifice in the city of Baltimore. They will sell them at a small advance, as there is no room for them in their little store room. So come one and all and take them at almost any price, as we are determined to sell cheaper than can be bought in Philadelphia, New York or Baltimore.

READ! READ!!
THE unprecedented success and established reputation of HOBENACK'S MEBEGATED WORM SYRUP, renders it almost useless to advertise it. To show, however, the estimation in which it is held by the community, the following certificates will suffice:

Cases of the astonishing Effects of our Syrup immediately in our own neighborhood.
The first we invite attention to, is a Minister of the Gospel, read his account.
Messrs. Hobenack—Sirs—Unsollicitd, I send you this to testify my confidence in the efficacy of your Worm Syrup. My gratitude for your gift of a box for my suffering child, from infancy afflicted with worms, at times almost frantically unmanageable; her derangement was such she would unconsciously knock herself against the wall, all from the effect of Worms; used several preparations without any good effect, until we used your Syrup. Astonishingly, yet delightfully, to our mutual feeling! she, frantic with pain, encephalitis with disease, in a few days was relieved from pain, restored to health; and is now doing well, after passing a great many worms full six inches long, & scores from one to four inches. Of course we were amazed and delighted to see our beloved one gain strength and appetite, and to see her so happy, prompt to say to all her friends, if your children suffer, give them Hobenack's Worm Syrup. C. H. PLUMER, Minister of the Gospel, Marshall st., Phila.
Note genuine without the signature of the proprietors on the outside wrapper. Prepared only by J. N. & S. Hobenack at the Chemical Laboratory, St. Louis, above Coates, Philadelphia, and at Martinville, Belmont county, Ohio. A liberal discount made to wholesale dealers. This Syrup is also for sale at the principal stores, and by storekeepers generally all over the United States. Also, Robert Shoemaker, General Agent, 2d and Green sts., Phila.
