" Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.—Here is a pre-paration which the leading presses in the Union sp pear to be unanimous in recommending, and is reason is obvious. It is made after a prescriptial furnished by one of the most celebrated physicas of modern times, the late Dr. Christopher Wilhels Hoofland, Professor to the University of Jena, Private Physicianite the King of Prussia, and one of the greatest medical writers Germany has ever produced. He was emphatically the enemy of kumbur, and therefore a medicine of which he was the isventor and endorser, may be confidently relied at the specially recommended it in Liver Complian Designata. Designata ear to be unanimous in recommending, and the Dyspepsia, Debility, Vertigo, Acidity of the & mach, Constirpation, and all complaints arising on a disordered condition of the atomach, the Liver, at
