DRY-ROT IN MR. FILLMORE'S CABINET. The New York Herald furnishes the following additional evidence of the deplorable condition o

Additional evidence of the deployable conducts a "Rumors, gathering and thickeeing every day, in-flicate the probability of a reconstruction of Mr. Fill-moro's cubinot sometime before the day of judgment. The cause of this dry-rot in the administration, which has been viewed; on the whole, very favorably by the country, does not lie very doop—only about as doop is the chances of certain members of the cabinet for the office of President—to which station they seem to be aspiring. Mr. Fillmore proposes to take the field, and Mr. Webster has fairly started, with three pipeches and a half and one coming—and Mr. Crit-tion office of write inter-or with anybody flow who is inclined to run.
