Carpetin Brown, the able editor of the Indiana shall be completed, these cattle can then be carried by the cars from Anderson, the point where the dreft) rote strikes the line of the Bellefontaine rail road, at a heavy saving to the drovers as to the actual expense and shrinkage, leaving the beef sweet and resh. There will be another advantage in change of process, in getting these cattle to market, the drovers can have them kept at the western end of the railroad middle cheaper until the demand for beef at the sattle "life" right, and then by telegraph give the state and the thousand the cars in the cars in the sattle "life" is an any be required, in a few days.—This objects in the process of carrying our western the cattle wild doubtless be beneficent to all contents.

BEVERE SENTENCE. - A man named Wm. Fulton, who had already undergone the penalties of his sentence in two cases for passing counterfait notes on the Bank of Delaware city, has just been convicted in New Castle county, of that State on two more indictments. The court passed sentence upon the prisoner, in each case as follows:

"To pay a fine of $500—be placed in the pillery for he space of one hour—undergo an imprisonment that the pace of three calendar months, and to wear Thoman T, of a scarlet color, six inches long and the inches broad, on the outside of his cont between that the unit of the continue of the caplication of his imprisonment, and he was committee to the control of the sheriff until these judgments were complied with.

It appears that this is the law of the State of Delaware, and the court has no discretionary power-but the people should certainly make haste to remov such barbarons statutes. There are similar laws in Delaware, also, which need expunging. They wer the offenting of a darker age than this.
