The Loss of the First-Born.

We have read of a young mother who had newly buried her first-born. Her pastor went to visit her, and on finding her sweetly resigned, he asked her how she had attained such resignation. She replied, "I used to think of my boy continually—whether sleeping or waking to me he seemed more beautiful than other children. I was disappointed if visitors omitted to praise his eyes, or his curls, or the robes I wrought for him with my needle. At first I believed it his natural countenance, but I thought of his mother's love. Then I feared it was pride, and sought to humble myself before him who is the Father of the humble. One night, in my dreams, I thought an angel stood beside me and said, 'Where is the little child thou nursest in thy bosom? I am sent to take it away. Where is the little child thou nursest in thy bosom? I am sent to take it away. Where is the little child thou nursest in thy bosom? I am sent to take it away.'"

There is a little bit of sensible advice that people who live in the country should profit by. Had we a "little farm," it would be our hobby to plant trees, and rear groves to minister to the beauty of the scene, and also to furnish fruits in their season. A little attention would surround every house in the country with shady groves, and fruitful yards. Plant a vine here, and a tree there—send or go to your neighbor's orchard and clip and cut a shoot, and insert one in every stock that does not already produce fruit. Plant trees by the fence sides; the roots will penetrate beneath them and draw sustenance from ground you cannot cultivate. Set a stout, thrifty grape root directly where the scap weeds from the kitchen will be daily thrown, and in three years' time you will have a fruit-bearing screen to hide the view of some unsightly place.—American Agriculturist.

The Lynchburg tragedy.—It is stated in the Frederick City (Va.) Recorder, that Mr. Saunders sent to Mr. Terry, previous to the death of the latter, a complete retracement of all that he had said offensive to him in the controversy which terminated so fatally. Mr. Terry accepted the message in the spirit in which it was sent, and expressed his regret that it had not reached him in time to save their respective families the sorrow and anguish which they had suffered.

The Chambersburg Whig says that arrangements have been made for the reconstruction of the Franklin Railroad, between Chambersburg and Hagerstown. The work will be commenced in two or three weeks, after which time about two miles per week of heavy T rails will be put down. The work will be completed as far as Greensboro this fall, and continued to Hagerstown as soon as the weather may open in the Spring.

Plainfield Classical Academy.

FOUR miles West of Carlisle. Tenth Session commences on Monday, May 5th, 1851. This Institution has been established nearly five years, during which time such additions and improvements have been made as to render it one of the most commodious and convenient in the State. In regard to healthfulness it may be mentioned that no case of serious sickness has occurred in the Institution since it was founded. Its moral purity is attested by the fact that depraved associations, scenes of vice, and resorts for dissipation have no existence in the neighborhood. The course of instruction comprises all branches required by the merchant, professional man or collegian. Also modern languages, vocal and instrumental music, &c. It is the determination of the Proprietor that the Institution shall sustain the reputation it has already acquired for imparting thorough instruction, and inculcating and establishing virtuous principles in the minds of the youth submitted to his charge. Terms (per session of five months) $50.00. For catalogue containing references, &c., address R. K. BURNS, Principal and Proprietor, Plainfield P. O., Camb. Co., Pa. April 10, 1851.

Virginia Farms for Sale. THE WINCHESTER VA. LAND AGENCY. J. A. BAKER & L. T. MOORE, having formed an Agency for the sale of Land in all parts of Virginia and other States, are now prepared to offer for sale a number of very DESIRABLE FARMS, located in the fertile and most remarkably healthy valley of Virginia. A number of these farms are of the best quality of Land, well improved, and convenient to Winchester, which place is celebrated as being the best flour market distant from the seaboard. This Agency possesses facilities for procuring all the best land for sale in this section of the country, and persons desiring to purchase a good farm, at moderate rates, can avoid much loss of time and expense of travelling through the country in search of a farm, by addressing them, post paid, and getting one of the Agency's circulars, giving an accurate description, location, and price of the various farms of each farm they offer for sale. There is now residing in the county of Frederick, upwards of seventy families recently removed from various parts of the West and the Pennsylvania, instead of travelling into a strange land, may here find his friends and neighbors settled on the same valley which skirts from the Susquehanna through Maryland and Virginia, and terminates only in the sunny hills of Tennessee. The Agents will use great precaution to see that titles to all lands they sell are good. Merchants, mechanics and tradesmen, wishing to procure a good location in this section of country for transacting business, would do well to apply to this Agency. BAKER & MOORE, Agents. Winchester, Frederick Co., Va. April 10, 1851.
