

THE VOLUNTEER.

John B. Bratton, Editor and Proprietor.
CARLEISLE, THURSDAY, JULY 31, 1851.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
WILLIAM BIGLER,
OF CLEARFIELD COUNTY.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER,
SETH CLOVER,
OF CARLISLE COUNTY.

JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT,
JEREMIAH S. BLACK, of Somerset,
JAMES CAMPBELL, of Philadelphia,
ELLS LEWIS, of Lancaster,
JOHN B. GIBSON, of Cumberland,
WALTER H. LOWRIE, of Allegheny.

STANDING COMMITTEE.

The Democratic Standing Committee of Cumberland county are requested to meet at the public house of Henry W. Scott, in the borough of Carlisle, on at 1 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of appointing the time for holding the Delegate Elections and the assembling of a County Convention to form a ticket. A general attendance of the Committee is earnestly requested.

THREE OF THE COMMITTEE.

The following named gentlemen compose the Standing Committee of the present year:
Upper Allen, Michael Cocklin; Lower Allen, H. G. Moser; Carlisle, E. W. Dr. Baughman; W. Hugh Gaullinger; Dickinson, John Hoeker; East Fennborough, Jacob Kaufman; Frankfort, Jacob Nicky; Hopewell, Robert Elliot; Hampden, David Hume; Millin, Isaac Christlieb; Monroe, Levi W. Wessler; Mechanicsburg, Col. Jos. Ingram; North Middleton, Abraham Lambert; Newville, John Highlands; Silver Spring, G. H. Becher; South Middleton, M. K. Moul; Southampton, Jacob Clipping; Shippensburg, Benj. Duke; Esq; Shippensburg Township, D. D. Duncan; West Fennborough, G. M. Graham.

FIREMEN'S PARADE.—The different Fire Companies of our borough contemplate having a grand parade on the 9th of August, which no doubt will be an attractive and imposing affair. The parade to take place at 10 o'clock.

WELL DONE, OLD MOTHER CUMBERLAND.—Old Mother Cumberland again leads off in paying into the State Treasury her full quota of State tax.—This secures to the tax payers an abatement of 5 per cent. Our Commissioners and Treasurer are entitled to much credit for their energy and promptness.

BATH ROOMS.—During this hot weather nothing is more inviting and beneficial to health, than a frequent resort to the bath. Our old friend, Maj. McCARTNEY, who lives on East street, has erected bath houses, through which the clear water of the Letort spring passes, and where those wishing to avail themselves of the plunge or shower bath can be accommodated. Everything is neat, clean and comfortable. Give the Major a call, all ye who wish a comfortable bath and good health.

MASS MEETING IN BLOOMFIELD.—The Democrats of gallant little Perry are to hold a Mass Meeting at Bloomfield, on Tuesday next, the 5th of August, Col. Bielen, the Democratic candidate for Governor, Col. REAN FRAZER, of Lancaster, and others will address the meeting. We hope a number of our Democratic friends in this county will make it convenient to be there. Can't we get up a "wagon line" for Monday next?

THE INVESTIGATOR.—This is the title of a very neat and spirited Democratic campaign paper just commenced at Harrisburg, by our friend Mr. R. H. ADAMS. Such a paper was much needed at the seat of Government, to answer the falsehoods put forth by the American, a filthy little Federal sheet, edited by Gov. Johnston's brother and clerks in the pay of the State. The articles in the Investigator are written with marked ability, and the infamy of Federal men and Federal measures are exposed in a plain and masterly manner. The Investigator should have a wide-spread circulation. Terms—50 cents per copy, or 5 copies for $2.—Address R. H. ADAMS, Esq., Harrisburg.

The Herald yesterday has an article over the caption of the "Loco-foco State Debt," which we shall answer next week, if time permits. We have said that the Riner administration increased the State debt over five millions. We say so still, and are ready to prove it.

QUERY.—If John Strohm, the Whig candidate for Canal Commissioner, was so strongly in favor of our soldiers, who were in the Mexican war, why did the members of the Whig Convention, last year, proclaim his vote in Congress, against giving our soldiers supplies, as an unfortunate vote. Will our neighbor of the Herald inform us?

If the Tariff of 1842 had continued in operation until the present time, there would have been in the United States at this moment over one hundred millions more of specie than there now is.—Whig Paper.

It is that true, why did every Whig member of the Pennsylvania Senate vote against or refuse to vote at all, on the resolution to substitute the bill of '42 for that of '41? Did they thus act in bad faith towards the interests of the country, for the purpose of making capital for electioneering purposes? Answer that!

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.
"Col. Bigler prepared to repudiate his vote on the Act of 1847, denying the Jails of this State to Fugitive Slaves?"—Herald.

When the Herald charges Col. Bielen with having voted for the Act of 1847, denying the jails of this State for the safe keeping of fugitives from labor, it utters either a wailing falsehood, or is ignorant of the facts. Col. B. did not vote for that act, and we defy the Herald to make good its charge.

And again the Herald asks:
"Col. Bigler in favor of the Fugitive Slave Law as it now stands, without modification or amendment?"

Col. Bielen answers this question himself. In a letter to a friend in Philadelphia, dated Clearfield, July 29, he says:

"I am for all the Compromise measures, and in favor of a thorough and efficient execution of them as they are, and against all future Congressional agitation of the questions settled by them."

And now that we have answered our neighbor triumphantly, and without equivocation, we shall expect him to answer us a question. It is this:

Gov. Johnston in his speech at Lancaster, stated that the Compromise measure, or as one neighbor calls it, the Slave Law, required modification or amendment. Now we ask—in what manner does the Governor propose to amend it? What modification does he favor? We await patiently the answer. We shall now see whether Johnston and his friends are as ready to answer as they are to propound questions. We shall see!

"EITHER DIE OR RESIGN!"

Tom Corwin, Secretary of the Treasury, spends a good portion of his time in Ohio, making political speeches. On a recent occasion he attempted to convince a friend of his that he was a very efficient public officer, and related the following story. He adopted to keep the people in their work. A Whig statement is from the Dayton (O.) Gazette, a Whig paper:

"A friend of ours who saw him the other day told us, he gave a most amusing and we doubt not truthful account of the condition of things in the Treasury Department, when he entered upon the duties of Secretary. The clerks, he estimates, were sick, on an average, about half the time—but it struck him as somewhat remarkable that, much as they were sick, none of them died. The fact was apparent at a glance that they did very little work for the public, and the interference was irresistible, that something must be done for them. Accordingly, the Secretary turned physician, and began to prescribe for the invalids."

He issued an order that all clerks who were absent from their desks a certain number of days, say two, on account of sickness, should submit to a proportionate deduction from their respective salaries; and all that were absent longer, say one week, would be required either to die or resign.

The prescription worked like a charm, and in a short time there was not a sick clerk in the whole Department. A healthier set of men than they are now, Mr. Corwin declares, cannot be found anywhere.

The Federal papers are publishing the above, under various captions. One paper before us introduces the article under the head of "A Good Plan to Cure Lazy Clerks." Another paper calls it "A Good Joke of Mr. Corwin," and a third gives it the heading of "An Admirable Physician." The Federal papers consider it a "good joke" for a member of Government office to threaten poor clerks with a deduction from their salaries if they should be so unfortunate as to be absent from their desks two days on account of sickness. And if they should be still more unfortunate, and remain sick the length of one week, they are required either to die or resign! This is an excellent "joke," say the Federal papers. It is about such a "joke" as we might expect from an overbearing Federal office holder, and should be evidence to all of the heartlessness of Federal professions of regard for the working man. And why should not the clerk at Washington be allowed an occasional day for recreation during the hot months of July and August? Why should a deduction be made from their pitiable wages on account of two days sickness? And why should this overbearing Secretary issue an order to his clerks, requiring them, in case they should be sick for a week, to "die or resign?" The Federal papers tell us that Mr. Corwin adopted this rule "as a matter of economy," and because "he is of the opinion that persons holding office under the Government should faithfully discharge the duties for which they were employed." Very well—we readily grant that every officer should discharge his duties faithfully and honestly; but yet we believe the clerks in the different departments at Washington absolutely require a little recreation, as well as the pampered official who receives a very large salary.

Mr. Corwin has adopted this "die or resign" rule because of his anxiety to "economize." Oh what guardians of the public treasury these Galphas are! They can trump up an old fraudulent claim, and rob the treasury of $30,000, divide the spoils, and chuckle over the dishonesty and infamy of the act, but yet when a poor clerk is taken sick for a few days he is asked to "die or resign," because of Mr. Corwin's great desire to economize! What hypocrisy!

But what makes this "die or resign" order of Mr. Corwin's appear still more tyrannical and impudent, is the fact that he himself is absent from his post nearly if not quite half the time. He has been from his duties when he related this "good joke," as the Federal papers call it. But then Tom Corwin receives a salary of $6000 a year, and his clerks receive about a $1000 or $1200 each. Corwin can be absent from his duties for weeks and even months together, at a loss to the Government, according to his principle as laid down, of about $17 per day, and it is all right! But not so with the hard-working clerk. If he is compelled, even by sickness, to absent himself from duty for two days, he must submit to a proportionate deduction from his salary. And if he continues sick a whole week, he must "die or resign!"

If Mr. Corwin's rule could be made to apply to those who receive high salaries, as well as to the poor clerks, we think President Fillmore and his whole cabinet would have been required to resign their respective offices long since. Since the formation of our Government we have never had a Cabinet that travelled all the time. Well may the Washington Union call it the "Travelling Cabinet." It is stated to be a fact that the members of the Cabinet have never yet met together since their appointment. Some two or three are constantly "sick," and absent from duty. For the last three months the entire Cabinet has been "on the go." By late Washington papers we learn that the President is now in Virginia—the Secretary of State, Daniel Webster, has gone to Europe—the Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Graham, is in North Carolina—Mr. Crittenden, Attorney General, is in Kentucky—Mr. Corwin, Secretary of the Treasury, is in Ohio—and Mr. Hall, Post-Master General, is in God-knows-where! Then we say, let the "die or resign" rule be applied to the Travelling Cabinet. Let those pampered officials practice what they preach, or falling to do this let them "die or resign!"

A DIG IN THE RIBS.
The New York Courier and Enquirer, the organ of the Whigs of the State of New York, and decidedly the ablest opposition paper in the Union, is not well pleased at the re-nomination of Gov. Johnston, and administers him the following dig in the short ribs. The Courier says:

"Most assuredly, we shall not rejoice in the reelection of Gov. Johnston, much as we respect him as a man, because his friends have thought proper to place him before the country in an attitude antagonistic to the constitution itself, and to those compromises upon which it was based, and by which alone the Union can be preserved."

There! The fact is all the leading Whig papers of the country are denouncing Johnston's truckling course. We are glad to see this. It is evidence that the Whig party contains many patriots men, who are sincerely attached to their country and the compromises of the Constitution, and who cannot be forced into the support of a man who is an Abolitionist at heart, and who declares himself opposed to the Compromise measures of Congress. The lines are now so clearly drawn in this State, that one who runs may read." Bigler and the Union, on his side; Johnston and higher law on the other. Choose ye, voters of Pennsylvania!

HARK! YE BOUQUETS.—The Republic, the national organ of the Federal party at Washington city, gives utterance to the following significant prophecy:

"We cannot forbear expressing an opinion at this time upon what we are willing to rest our character upon. It is simply that Millard Fillmore, unless some reaction now unthought of shall take place before the time of nomination, will be the Whig candidate—Union and the people's candidate for the next Presidency."

The passion of love makes almost every man a rhymer, though not a poet.

You are very penetrating, as the whole said to the sword fish.

GOV. JOHNSTON ON THE STUMP!

By the Federal papers we learn that his Excellency the Governor, has mounted the stump, and is now engaged in haranguing his "fellow-citizens" in the western counties of the State—and this too at the expense of the people! Who administers the Government in his absence? The people pay him a high salary, and he is sworn to administer the affairs of State with fidelity. Can he do this and be absent from the seat of Government half his time? During his absence, the business properly belonging to him, and for performing which he is paid a large sum, is committed to the hands of his clerks! Is this right—is it honest—will the people whose great interest is in the State, quietly submit to a man so great a wrong? No, never. We know they will not submit to pay taxes to be appropriated to the travelling expenses of a public officer who occupies months together in electioneering and revelry.

Were a Democratic Governor guilty of conduct like this, what a howling woe would he hear from the Federal clergies. Every scribbler would denounce the act as dishonest and corrupt, and every Federal Whiff would give tongue! But, Johnston is a Whig Governor, which, in the opinion of Federal editors, covers a multitude of sins. He can squander the means of the treasury—he can use the public money for electioneering purposes—he can neglect the duties he is sworn to perform—he can, in fine, make a rowdy of himself, and disgrace the high office he holds—he can do all these things, we say, and receive no censure from the Whig press, but, on the contrary applause and the cry of "amen" is heard! He is a Whig Governor—that's enough. He can do no wrong, in the opinion of his partisans.

But, the people, the sovereign people, cannot be blinded. On the second Tuesday of October a shout will go up for BIGLER and the Constitution, that will stifle Johnston and his minions, and cause them to quail beneath the stern rebuke. The voice will be mighty, and loud as the thunder-clap in the storm, that will summon Johnston to vacate the office he now disgraces. Let him prepare for the worst, for he is certain, we are certain, to meet an inglorious, complete, Waterloo defeat. All the false statements put forth by Federal editors, his satellites and minions, will avail him nothing. Go he must, and go he shall. Burnt brandy cannot save him. He has abused his office—he has disgraced his office—he has used the public money for electioneering purposes! This is enough of itself to damn him with the people, if even no other charges could be preferred against him. He must go!

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.
That William F. Johnston, the Federal Galphin candidate for Governor, is a recreant Democrat, and was ejected from the Democratic ranks because of his want of political integrity.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE, that Gov. Johnston is against the Union and the Compromise measures of Congress—measures which such Whigs as Henry Clay and Daniel Webster advocated and voted for.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE, that Gov. Johnston was a member of the Legislature during Riner's administration, and voted for an appropriation of SEVEN HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS to finish Stevens' Gettysburg Railroad—a work commencing in the woods and ending no where, and which was so totally useless for any State purpose that it was entirely abandoned, and the seven hundred thousand dollars lost to the Treasury!—This is the "sinking fund" which Gov. Johnston can in truth call "his own."

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE, that Gov. Johnston also voted for six hundred and fifty thousand dollars as an appropriation to the Kittanning feeder—another scheme of Federal plunder. This work commenced, as Johnston's own residence and was to have been finished in the State wharves, because an additional feeder to the canal was not wanted. This Whig undertaking was also abandoned, after $40,000 had been spent and lost to the Treasury! This too is another part of the Governor's "sinking fund."

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE, that Johnston will be defeated by 20,000 on the 2d Tuesday of October. And

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE, that JOHN STROHM, the Federal Galphin candidate for Canal Commissioner, is one of those traitors in Congress who gave "aid and comfort" to the Mexicans, by voting against sending supplies to our troops after war had been declared.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE, that John Strohm, like Gov. Johnston, is an Abolitionist, and opposed to the Compromise measures, and therefore hostile to Fillmore, Clay, Webster, and other national Whigs.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE, that John Strohm will meet with as disastrous a defeat as that experienced by his friends, the Mexicans.

The One Term Candidate.
Gov. Johnston made solemn and oft repeated pledges to be a candidate but for one term.

He has used his official patronage and influence to procure a nomination for a re-election, and is now soliciting votes for a second election.

Gov. Johnston and his party abused the vote power. Yet this same Gov. Johnston has resorted to the use of the veto to defeat the expressed wishes of the people; and in case of some conversation with the action of the people's Representatives. He had not the moral courage to either sign it or veto; so he stowed it away in his breeches pocket until after the election.

Johnston and his party would offend and frequent complaints against his predecessors for the occasional use of the pardoning power, while he has used it indiscriminately for the best and most mercenary purposes. He undoubtedly expects a strong support from birds just let loose from the Penitentiary.

In one place, Richter says—"No man can either live piously or die righteously without a wife." A wicked old bachelor, of our acquaintance, says to this—"Oh, yes, suffering and severe trials truly purify and chasten the heart."

A CHASE SUBSCRIPTION LIST.—The editor of the Albany Patriot, published at Albany, Ga., who was recently on a collecting tour in Decatur county, says—"Every man who was called on paid his account." That is commendation enough for any people.

THE PITTSBURGH LADIES.—The editor of the Pittsburgh Chronicle, who no doubt is a crusty old bachelor, utters the following libel against the ladies of Pittsburgh. Truly he stands a bad chance of getting into the blissful bands of Hymen! Hear him:

"We feel the responsibility of our position very sensibly, and know the danger to which those remarks will subject us, but candor compels us to state very abundantly in Pittsburgh. Any gentleman of discrimination and experience who will take a position on Third street, any market day, and observe closely, cannot fail to be of this opinion. There is no mistake about it, we know it by experience—our meetings and ankles, that daily grace our sidewalks, but the majority are like the Irishman's Mollinger Heifer, 'beef to the heels.' We do not pretend to appear in rich costume, but we are quite confident that the Turk if we have heard of other cities of this country be true, it will never be adopted to any considerable extent, in any of them."

JUDGE STUART.

The following letter from Judge STUART explains itself. He will not, under any circumstances, permit his name to be presented to the Democratic County Convention for the office of Associate Judge. For sixteen consecutive years Judge STUART has been upon the Bench of this county. He was appointed, we believe, by Gov. Wolf, after the death of Judge GRAHAM. During all this time Judge STUART has maintained the character of an upright, honest and impartial officer, and will retire from office respected by all who know him. He has had all the honors the office can confer, and again enters the walks of private life, willing and ready to do battle in the cause of the Democratic party, the principles of which he has so long revered and sustained. But to his letter:

SOUTH MIDDLETON Twp.,
July 25, 1851.

Dear Sir—Having been solicited by many kind friends in this county, to permit my name to go before the people as a candidate for Associate Judge, and as the time is now approaching when the Democratic County Convention will assemble to nominate candidates for this and the other offices, permit me to state, publicly, through the medium of your paper, as I have on repeated occasions in interviews with my friends, that I will not be a candidate for Associate Judge.

After occupying a place on the bench for a number of years, I shall, with much pleasure, enroll myself as a private in the ranks of the Democracy of "Old Mother Cumberland." To those who have kindly solicited me to permit my name to be used as a candidate, and to the Democratic party of Cumberland county, I would say, with great gratification, that I have so long occupied, I return my most sincere thanks.

Very respectfully yours,
JOHN STUART.

THE JUDGESHIP—AGAIN.
We had reason to believe from the first, that the names of those two old Democrats, Messrs. ARNOLD and RITTER, of Perry county, were procured to their letter addressed to Mr. WATTS, by trickery; and we are glad they have exposed the plot concocted by a few men in Bloomfield, the object of which was to elect a Whig to the Judgeship of this district. Messrs. Arnold and Ritter, in their letter which follows, show that they had no hand in getting up the letter to Mr. WATTS, but that it was prepared by Mr. MINTIRE, in his office in Bloomfield, fifteen miles from Loysville, where it purports to have been written! We hope and believe Mr. WATTS had no knowledge of this trickery and fraud.

It has been our desire to avoid all discussion in regard to the Judgeship, but yet this desire shall not prevent us exposing the duplicity of the two or three men in this county and in Perry, who have, on more than one occasion, attempted to disorganize the Democratic party and defeat its candidates. We hope, and believe, therefore, that we shall have no occasion to refer to the subject of the Judgeship again.

From the Perry County Democrat.

THE JUDGESHIP.
We made a brief visit to old Mother Cumberland the other day, and the tidings which everywhere met us, were no more to be doubted, but that democracy there are united and determined to do their duty and their whole duty in October. We were surprised to learn, from sources the most reliable in that county, that the party, even in the most remote and isolated portions of the Democratic business, wherever he may be, as full a party vote, as any other man on the ticket. We were surprised, for from much that we had before heard, there was room to fear, that we had no room to doubt, but that the democracy there are united and determined to do their duty and their whole duty in October.
