

MON. ELLIS LEWIS.
Last week Judge Lewis made a brief visit to the family of his son-in-law, Maj. Jas. H. Campbell, in this borough, during which time many of our citizens embraced the opportunity of offering to him their respects in person.

On Saturday evening a large number of gentlemen of both political parties, waited upon him, on which occasion they were entertained by Major Campbell, in the most liberal and sumptuous manner. The utmost cordiality and good feeling prevailed during the evening, and although we can hardly suppose that all the Whig gentlemen were present will cast their votes for Judge Lewis at the coming election, it was clearly manifest that he made a most favorable impression.

Whenever known, it is admitted that as a scholar, a child, eagle-eyed lawyer, a sound, discriminating and impartial independent Judge, he has few equals, and probably no superior in the State of Pennsylvania. His election to the Supreme Bench will afford very general satisfaction.

Judge Lewis, says the editor of the Luzerne Democrat, is among the learned legal men of the age. There are few men, indeed, whose minds are better disciplined than that of this gentleman. For a period of twenty years, he has been upon the bench and in our intercourse with him, we have never heard the legal capacity of Judge Lewis questioned.

While at the bar, in Northern Pennsylvania, he had a commanding position, and an advocate or counselor no superior. From his first career in life, at the printing press, down to the present time, his whole course of conduct has been marked by zeal and energy of character.

Another Galphin.
The Gardner Case.
It appears as though there was to no end to the robbery, thieving and plunder of the Galphin Whites. It seemed in the last issue of the paper that a head of one of the departments, under Gen. Taylor, received from Secretary Mazzoni, who is now a Whig candidate for one of the Judges of the Supreme Court, the enormous sum of NINETEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS, as a reward on the celebrated Galphin claim.

Comparisons are said to be odious, and we have no doubt the plundering pirates now in power will find them so, when they see the figures of their dynasty compared with those of honest administrations. Take for instance the closing three years of Gov. Shunk's administration, the expenses of the Executive and State departments with three years of Governor Johnston's.

Now look on this picture.
Since 1848, Gov. Johnston has had control of the expenses of these departments, and here are the figures:
1849, $11,935 00
1850, 10,848 83
1851, 13,740 00

Making an excess of expenses against Johnston's administration in one department of more than $3,000. Part of Governor Johnston's sinking fund.—Harris' Investigator.

THE HOUSE AND GRAVE OF JEFFERSON.—A correspondent of the Uniontown Democrat, who has recently visited Monticello, the residence of Jefferson, thus describes it:
The interior of the house is just as Jefferson left it, except the furniture, which is all gone, save some paintings, mirrors, &c. The house, both outside and inside, bears the evidence of neglect and decay, but it still retains all its fair proportions, and its venerable outline grows gay and mossy by time and neglect, perhaps adds, rather than otherwise, to its appearance, particularly to strangers. And the venerable oaks trees growing around, throw a kind of melancholy over everything, that seems to whisper in your ear, and point you about three hundred yards down in the woods, to the grave of him who planted them—to the humblest grave in appearance that ever held the remains of human greatness.

More of it.
The Washington Union, referring to the fact that the Grand Jury had found true bills for perjury against Dr. Gardner, who is now in Europe, and against his brother, in the matter of the Mexican claims, says:
We have heard many complaints against the late Mexican board, and of the wrongfulness of many of the awards made by it; but as we have no authority to send for "persons and papers," we must wait for further developments before we can venture to give currency to the statements which have reached us. Congress will doubtless sift the action of the board; and if a title of what we have heard be as satisfactorily proved, the Galphin case will be forgotten.

THE WINCHESTER VA. LAND AGENCY.
J. A. BAKER & L. T. MOORE, having formed an Agency for the sale of Lands lying in all various parts of Virginia and other States, are now prepared to offer for sale a number of very DESIRABLE FARMS, located in the fertile and most remarkably healthy valley of Virginia. A number of these farms are of the best Limestone Land, well improved, and convenient to Winchester, which place is celebrated as being the best flour market distant from the seaboard. This Agency possesses facilities for procuring all the best Land for sale in this section of the country, and persons desiring to purchase a good farm, at moderate rates, can avoid much loss of time and expense of travelling through the country in search of a farm, by addressing me, post paid, and getting one of the Agency's circulars, giving an accurate description, location, and price and conditions of payment of each farm they offer for sale.

There is now residing in the county of Frederick, upwards of seventy families, recently removed from various parts of Pennsylvania, and the Pennsylvania, instead of travelling into a strange land, may here find his friends and neighbors settled on the same valley which skirts from the Susquehanna through Maryland and Virginia, and terminates only in the sunny plains of Tennessee.
The Agents will use great precaution to see that titles to all lands they sell are good.
Merchants, and all persons, wishing to procure a good location in this section of country for transacting business, would do well to apply to this Agency.
