We would call the attention of our friends, as well as strangers who visit our Borough, to the Livery Establishment of our friend Mr. GEORGE W. HILTON, who holds forth in Pitt street, nearly opposite the Mansion House. Mr. HILTON is well prepared to accommodate all who from motives of Amount of work contracted for pleasure or necessity, wish to take a drive into the Towards the payment of these concountry. Having made great additions to his establishment, he will always be found ready with that gentlemanly manner and kind courtesy for which he has always been distinguished, to accommodate all who call on him, at the most reasonable terms.

"THE TEMPLE" for August has been received. Both departments, Masonic and Literary, are filled with contributions of excellence: among those of the former is the "Origin of Masonry," in which the writer evinces great research, originality of thought, and logical perspiculty; as well in proving the dignity of its founders as the antiquity and propriety of its name. In the Literary department will be found the effusions of able pens-American and European-providing matter of profitable en tertainment as various as the tastes of its readers. Second to none of them in brilliancy of conception and beauty of expression, is a poetical gem of our Debts contracted for public improvefriend, Maj. E. S. Egg.

'We are pleased to see that this neat and valuable work is appreciated, not only by the fraternity to whose interests it is devoted, but also by the general reader of whom it is not unmindful. It is not merely popular, but descruedly so.
