The Last of Him.

The Lust of Him.

EAD the following:—Do not let it excite your fears, if you are week and debilitated, but immediately obtain a bottle of Hobensack's Worm Syrup, and restore yourself to health and happiness.

While others will excite your fears to sell their sputices preparations, with no evidence of their touching such a case, we have the frightful reptile, and any one can see it at Coates and Second sts, which passed from Mr. Jacob Shetienhiser, of Lancater county, Pa., 336 inches in length, which has sent us, grateful for the restoration of health, and desirous that others may be convinced of the efficacy of the "Bufferer's Friend."

We will let this sufferer tell his own tale of wee, and express the generosity of his noblescul in strains of gratitude for his relief from the grasp of this messenger of death.

Messrs. J. N. & G. S. Hobensack—Having been afflicted for some time, and finding no relief from various medicines, I was induced to try your Worm Syrup, from a belief of being afflicted with worms. I had taken but three bottles of your Syrup, when to my great surprise and immediate relief, I passed a tape worm 28 feet or 336 inches in length, which I send you. Hoping this may benefit some on afflicented. It acts specifically upon the stomach and presented in like manner, and in justice to the value of your medicine, I respectfully, JACOB SHEIFENHISER.
