RICHARD PARKER,

leased the above well known Hotel, lately occupied by Samuel Morrett, in the village of Papertown, six miles south of Carlisle, where he will be happy to receive the visits of those who may favor him with a call. The HOUSE is large and airy, having recently had aspacious addition built thereto, and is located in one of the most pleasant, healthful, and romantic nooks in the State—thus making it a most delightful summer resort to the stranger, traveller or guest.—Wild game and fish of all kinds abound in the immediate vicinity. Having supplied his Bar with choice liquors from the city, and his Table being furnished with the best viands and choicest delicacies of the season, he flatters himself that he is precise of the season, he flatters himself that he is precies of the season, he flatters himself that he is pre-pared to accommodate his guests in a manner that cannot fall of being both agreeable and satisfactory. Stabling capable of containing a large number of horses is attached, which will be attended by a care-ful and obliging Ostler. As everything will be kept
