JOHN B. BRATTON, Pres't. Carlisle, Sept. 4, 1851.

Col. WILLIAM BIGLER, next Governor of Pennsylvania, has named Thursday, the 25th inst., as the day he expects to visit "old Mother Cumberland."

COMMENDABLE.—We were lately shown a very handsomely gilt and finely bound copy of the Bible, presented to Mr. Eckers, by his first class, upon their leaving school.

A RETURNED CALIFORNIAN.—Mr. GEORGE A. KATZ, a young man of our borough, who has been in California for the last two years, returned home a few days since, in good health.

ENCOURAGE YOUR OWN PEOPLE.—It should be the object of every citizen to support home manufactures.

THE DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.—During the last week, (being court week), we had an opportunity of conversing with Democrats from all parts of our county.

How to Disorganize and Conquer the Democratic Party.—Just say that unless Mr. So and so, my particular friend, is nominated, a Whig will be elected.

THE DEMOCRACY OF CENTRE COUNTY.—The Democracy of Centre county have instructed their delegates to the State Convention for Gen. Cass.

BIGLER vs. JOHNSTON.

This is the issue that is now made up and pending before the people, and to be finally determined on the second Tuesday of next October.

A proper regard to the relations we sustain to other portions of our confederacy, should make it a matter of serious consideration, whether we should give countenance and support to the abolitionists of the North, by sustaining and elevating those at home who sympathize with them in many of their heretical doctrines.

Besides, Governor Johnston's demagoguism on the subjects of the tariff, state debt, sinking fund, and other hobbies which he rides for the time being, should place him in the proper position before the people, to be weighed in the balance by them and found wanting.

In contrast with such hypocrisy and double dealing, we are proud to point to the conduct and the sentiments expressed by our noble standard-bearer in this contest, Col. Bigler.

He is in favor of a revenue tariff and economy in the administration of the government. He also exposes, in a masterly manner, the claims set up by Governor Johnston to paying off a half a million of the State debt, when it can be satisfactorily shown that less of the debt has been paid during his administration for the same length of time, than was paid by Governor Shunk's administration.

In fine we have every thing to expect and nothing to fear in the coming contest. With union and harmony, an adherence to principles, and a disregard of personal grievances, we may expect such a triumph as has been seldom achieved in Pennsylvania.

THE ONE TERM PRINCIPLE.—Three years ago Gov. Johnston made a speech in this town. In that speech he declared himself in favor of what he called the "one term principle," and opposed to the election of any man as Governor for more than one term.

He proclaimed his opposition to the veto, or "one man power," and took the ground that no bill that received a majority of the votes of the people's representatives, should be vetoed by the Governor.

He said he was opposed to proscription for opinion's sake, and pledged himself, in case he should be elected Governor, to "proscribe proscription."

He said to, (as all Federal slangwhangers say when begging for votes), that he was in favor of "an economical administration of the government," &c.

Now, let us see how Gov. Johnston has carried out the principles he professed and the doctrines he promulgated.

First, in regard to the "one term principle."—The very fact that he is again before the people, asking for a re-election, is proof that he has repudiated the doctrine he preached.

Secondly, he opposed the "veto power," and yet it is a notorious fact that he has exercised this power without regard to justice or right.

Thirdly, he said he was opposed to the pardoning power, and in the face of this profession he has let loose upon society scores of the most desperate scoundrels that ever disgraced our Penitentiary.

Fourthly, he professed to be opposed to proscribing men because of their political opinions, but yet no sooner was he in power than every Democrat in office was immediately removed.

Fifthly, he abused President Polk because he had a paper in his interest that was called his "organ." Now the Governor himself has an organ at Harrisburg—a paper edited by his own brother, and a most abusive lying sheet at that.

Sixth, the Governor professed to be a great economist, and pledged himself that, in the event of his election, he would practice the strictest economy. And yet by reference to the records we find that the expenses of the State Government, in two years of Johnston's administration, have been $83,259 45 greater than in the same length of time under Gov. Shunk!

INCREASE OF CRIME.

There has never within our recollection been so many criminal prosecutions brought before our Court as during the last week.

There has never within our recollection been so many criminal prosecutions brought before our Court as during the last week. There were fifty-five indictments presented to the Grand Jury.

They embraced almost every grade in the calendar of crime. Riot, arson, rape, fornication and bestiality, passing counterfeit money, assault and battery, &c., were the topics of the week.

To give a regular report of the trials as they occurred would occupy too much space in our columns, besides we have no strong desire to add another pang to the already wounded hearts of parents and friends by publishing the crimes of which their children and relatives have been found guilty, and for which many of them will be incarcerated within the walls of the Penitentiary.

It may be considered by many an improper duty we owe to society to give publicity to the facts, in order to suppress crime. Were we satisfied that its publication would have such a happy tendency, we would do an irreparable injury by withholding it from the public.

But we have no reasons to justify us in making the press an engine of oppression by retreating to afflicted parents and friends what they already know to their sorrow. We would not be understood that in the punishment of the guilty we make any distinction—not at all.

Let all, be they in good standing or not, find guilty of a heinous crime or disturbing the public peace, be treated alike. But would it be right to open out a degree of censure when they have already been tried and sentenced by the Court?

We think not. Suffice it to say, the guilty have suffered, and see the extent to which their crimes have led them; and let us draw the veil of oblivion over these scenes and lend an ear of sympathy to those who, by relationship, are connected to the offenders, and are morally afflicted in consequence of the waywardness of their friends.

That crime is increasing in our midst is generally admitted. Its rapid growth is enough to startle the reflecting man, and cause the philanthropist to pause and enquire from whence comes so much depravity, and where will it end?

THE JUDICIARY.—We cannot spare a smile when we glance over our different exchanges, to see the various positions occupied by the Federal party, on the subject of the election of Judges. Now we will state it as a remarkable coincidence, (we have no doubt a mere matter of accident), that in all those districts where they have the majority, they deem the nomination of Judges a highly prudent and proper step, as it is the most suitable way to select the Judges and embody public sentiment, so as to prevent the reckless practice of electing their own men when they have no right to have Judges or any thing else, but justice honestly administered by some good Whig.

But in those portions of the State where the Federalists are in a minority, they deprecate above all things a political Judge, and think it would soil the judicial robe and taint the administration of justice, by electing a man to that high office by a party vote. Hence they are opposed to both and to all nominations for the judiciary. This may be all right, but it is passing strange that the Federalists have discovered this important truth, as they deem it, in no district or county where they have the majority. Our readers can draw their own inference.

Keep it before the People, That Gov. Johnston tried to defile the TEN HOUR LAW, and was mainly instrumental in procuring the passage of the proviso which compels children to work more than ten hours, if done by contract with their parents or guardians.

Keep it before the People, That Johnston, in his message to the Legislature in 1849, recommended INCREASED TAXATION.

Keep it before the People, That the expenses of the State Government, in two years of Johnston's administration, have been $83,259 45 greater than in the same length of time under Gov. Shunk.

Keep it before the People, That the amount of taxes assessed upon the farmers and mechanics of Pennsylvania, for two years under Gov. Johnston's administration, is $249,538 47 greater than in the same period under Shunk.

Gov. Johnston and his friends are constantly striving to impress the people with the belief that his administration has been a peculiar economical one, says the Pittsburg Post. Let us see what claims he has to the character of an economical public servant.

At a great Democratic Meeting, in Philadelphia, on Thursday night, Col. DUFFELL, heretofore a very prominent Whig, and late a Whig candidate for Congress in the 4th district, made a speech in which he renounced Whiggery and gave in his adhesion to Col. Dierks and the whole Democratic ticket.

THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION IN CHINA.—The Annuals of the Propagation of the Faith states that the Emperor of China has issued a decree by which the free exercise of the Christian Religion is permitted throughout the whole extent of the Chinese Empire. This movement is ascribed to the circumstance that the Emperor was educated by a Christian lady in whom his Father had great confidence.

THE LATE FEDERAL CONVENTION—A RIOT SCENE.

Mr. Editor.—It is to be regretted that the editor of the Herald did not publish the full proceedings of the late Federal County Convention. Had he done so, he would have furnished something worth reading.

From all that can be learned, our friends, the Federalists, must have had considerable "noise and confusion" during the few hours they were locked up in Education Hall.

On the subject of nominating Judges, the scene must have been decidedly rich and interesting. It appears the Delegates from the country, generally speaking, were in favor of nominating Judges. The Carlisle clique, however, determined to manage things their own way, and resolved that no candidates should be nominated for Judges. The rival factions met in Convention, when a very interesting debate took place on the subject.

A Delegate from one of the townships raised his voice to such a pitch as to be heard for a square or more. "Are you again going to sell the 'Whig party of this county' to the locofoccos?" asked this Federal orator. "Must the Delegates from the country again be dictated to by two or three would-be leaders in Carlisle? Must we yield our principles, our honor, our opinions, and even submit to be sold to the locofoccos, merely because two or three men in Carlisle say so? Never never!"

The speaker was going on at this furious rate, when he was suddenly called to "order" by a Delegate who "spoke as if by authority." A war of words followed, in which a dozen or more were engaged at the same time. Ever and anon, however, some one of the speakers would raise his voice to the highest key, and such disconnected sentences and words as "falshood," "town clique," "tools of Bill Johnston," "Cooper disorganizers," "we can't be sold to the locofoccos," "go to the d—," "the whole ticket shall be defeated," &c. &c. were distinctly heard outside the building.

At length a vote was taken whether or not candidates for Judges should be placed on the ticket. During the voting all was silent as the gavel, but it was a quiet preceding a storm. In a few minutes it was announced that "the motion to nominate Judges was defeated by one majority!" Another scene of confusion followed. "We are sold," "we are sold," exclaimed several delegates, as they rushed down stairs into the street. A hearty laugh from the victorious party was the only reply. Such, Mr. Editor, was the scene in the Federal convention on the subject of nominating Judges. I heard many other good things, which I will note down for the edification of your readers hereafter.

BIGLER CLUB MEETING.

A meeting of the Carlisle Bigler Club was held at Stough's hotel on Saturday evening last. On motion, a committee of five was appointed to report resolutions expressive of the sense of the Club, viz: James Agnew, M. Holcomb, Esq., Andrew Kerr, Philip Alspsaugh, John Kramer.

During the absence of the committee, J. Ellis Bonham, Esq., addressed the meeting in his usual able manner. The committee, through their chairman, then reported the following resolutions, which were adopted by acclamation.

Resolved, That Col. WILLIAM BIGLER, the nominee of the Democratic party for Governor, of this county, receive our cordial, hearty, and united support. With his name upon our banners, we feel sure of gaining a brilliant victory.

Resolved, That we will, in the same spirit, rally to the support of Gen. Seth CLOVER, of Clarion county, for Canal Commissioner. His well known capacity and honesty of character, eminently fit him for this office.

Resolved, That the candidates nominated by the Harrisburg Convention for Judges of the Supreme Bench, are men of sterling honesty, possessing great legal ability. They are worthy of, and entitled to our hearty support, and will receive it.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the resolution, adopted unanimously by our late County Meeting, and will support, with zeal and energy, the whole County Ticket, nominated by the late Democratic State Convention. It is composed of men eminently qualified, and deserveth and should receive the support of every true Democrat.

Resolved, That in our repeated fellow citizen, JAMES H. GRAHAM, Esq., who has received the nomination of the Democratic party for Governor of this County, we have a man eminent as a lawyer, and pre-eminently for his urbanity and honesty of purpose. His election, by an overwhelming majority, is beyond a doubt.

Resolved, That it is the duty of every true Democrat to support the nominations fairly and honorably made by the regular Delegates in County Convention. By this mode alone can the organization of the party be preserved, and its principles sustained.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the officers and published. On motion, the meeting then adjourned to meet at Burkholder's hotel, on Saturday evening next, the 6th September.

JOHN B. BRATTON, President. Wm. Parks, Rudolph Natcher, A. Roberts, Christopher Stough, A. Monasmitz, Vice President. S. H. Gould, P. Quigley, A. Galloher, Secretaries.

THE NEWS FROM CUBA.—The news from Cuba continue contradictory. One day we hear that Lopez and his followers have been taken—the day following brings tidings of battles fought and won by the Patriots. All is uncertain. That several battles have been fought, is beyond doubt—and that Lopez is rapidly gaining recruits is equally certain.

DEATH OF GOVERNOR McDOWELL.—The Hon. JAMES McDOWELL, member of the late Congress and formerly Governor of Virginia, died on Sunday last at his residence near Lexington. He had been a representative in Congress for eight years.

CAMBRIA COUNTY.

A meeting of the Democratic citizens of Cambria County was held in the Borough of Ebensburg, on Monday evening, August 25th, for the purpose of adopting measures preparatory to the next election.

The meeting was organized by appointing Dr. Wm. A. Smith, President; Capt. James Murray, James Myers, Charles Litzinger, George Harman, Vice Presidents, and Edward J. Mills, and Daniel C. Zahm, Secretaries.

The object of the meeting having been stated by the President, the following resolutions were submitted by Mr. George C. K. Zahm, and upon being read, unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That it is the right as well as the duty of Freemen to assemble and express their opinions upon important occasions, and regarding as we do the approaching election in Pennsylvania as one of the most important that has ever occurred in our State, and only an account of the number and importance of the State offices to be filled, but the bearing its results may have upon the future welfare of the Union, we feel it incumbent upon us to organize for the campaign.

Resolved, That we heartily respond to the nomination of the State Conventions, recently assembled at Reading and Harrisburg, and that whilst we shall yield them a cheerful and united support, we look forward with pleasure to their triumphant election on the second Tuesday of October next, and the redemption of the Keystone State from the misrule of Federal and Abolition Whiggery.

Resolved, That in the selection of our fellow citizen and neighbor, Col. William Bigler, of Clearfield, as the candidate for Governor, we recognize a Democrat, and one who is familiar with our history, who is familiar, and to whose support we can rally with cheerfulness. As the representative of this county for six years in the State Senate we know him well, and whose public career proves him to be warmly attached to the interests of his native State, a statesman of enlarged views, and to whose hands the helm of State may be safely confided.

Resolved, That the bold and manly stand taken by Col. Bigler to sustain all the compromise measures passed by the last Congress, to give stability to the Union, secure "the rights of the States, and the union of the States," meets our warm approbation, and should receive the support of every Democrat. That his course on these questions stands out in strong contrast with that of Wm. F. Johnston, whose shuffling and double dealing so as to secure the votes of Abolitionists and Natives, show him to be a demagogue unworthy to preside over the destinies of the Keystone State.

Resolved, That Gen. Seth Clover, of Clarion county, is entitled to our warm support for the office of Canal Commissioner, believing him to be honest and capable, and although sneered at by our opponents as "only a common man," we regard it as a part of the same tactics of those who have heretofore derided the qualifications of Jefferson, Jackson, and Polk.

Resolved, That we have the fullest confidence in the learning, ability, and integrity of the Democratic ticket, and that they merit and shall receive our united support.

Resolved, That we will oppose the election of John Strohman, the Whig candidate for Canal Commissioner, who, by his votes in Congress, refused to support our suffering soldiers in Mexico, but upon supplies to "hospitable graves," and ought never to be sustained by the patriotic citizens of Cambria.

Resolved, That we would urge upon the Democracy of the different townships a thorough organization, feeling satisfied if we do our duty we will roll a majority of 600 for the whole State ticket.

Resolved, That this meeting cheerfully concur in the resolution adopted by a late County Convention, expressing their approbation of the patriotic efforts of our country by the passage in the last Congress of the Compromise bills, and whilst we would again cheerfully support them in the event of his nomination for the Presidency, yet the first object of Cambria County is now as it has heretofore been, for Pennsylvania's favorite son, James Buchanan.

Resolved, That in James Buchanan we possess a candidate every way worthy of that exalted station—whose purity of private character, eminent ability, and patriotism, evinced in a long public career in the service of his country, has ever formed our political opponents an acknowledgment of his transcendent abilities, and whose elevation would not only reflect credit upon the station, but upon the State, the Democracy of which has always been ready to battle in defence of republican men and measures.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the officers and published in the Sentinel, Bedford Gazette, Pennsylvania, Pittsburg Post, Carlisle Volunteer, and Harrisburg Union.

Mr. Dallas' Opinion of Judge Campbell.—The Hon. George M. Dallas is well known to be one of the most distinguished lawyers in the United States. He is a near neighbor of Judge Campbell, has practiced in his Court, and is therefore well qualified to speak of the legal abilities of that gentleman. We take the subjoined extract from the published report of Mr. D.'s remarks at the great Democratic meeting, in Philadelphia, on Thursday evening last:

"I have said we should be harmonious, and why should we not be? Is there any man on another ticket that should start us from our party loyalty? The Harrisburg Convention has nominated five citizens for Judges of the Supreme Court. I will not stop to canvass their merits—but this I will say, and say it after deliberation, that as a whole, the Democratic State Judicial Ticket contains AS MUCH LEARNING, AS MUCH ABILITY, AS MUCH LEGAL ERUDITION, AND AS MUCH CHARACTER AS COULD BE FOUND IN ANY FIVE CITIZENS OF THE COMMONWEALTH."

Gov. Johnston has at last intimated what amendment he proposes to the fugitive slave law. He did not do it with his usual boldness, for he was afraid of offending the abolitionists on the one hand and the compromise Whigs on the other. But he has stated that he intends to mitigate an alteration of the adjustment, which, if it is touched, will as certainly bring about an exciting discussion and endanger the peace and stability of the Union.

SMERCE.—Hon. Luke Woodbury, the Democratic nominee for Governor of New Hampshire, committed suicide on Wednesday morning at his residence in Antrim, by hanging himself. He had been unwell for some weeks, which probably led to the commission of the act.

The Invasion of Cuba.

Washington, Sept. 1.—The Telegraph of this evening, says positive information has been received by the Government, of an arrangement to have within a month, not less than five thousand armed men in Cuba.

The Cuban Junta, at New Orleans, have placed the whole matter under the control of Gen. Felix Houston, who is collecting money and organizing for a large expedition.

Reported Shooting of 205 more Patriots. BALTIMORE, Sept. 1.—A merchantile house here has received by the Empire City letters dated Havana, August 15.

These, after mentioning the capture and execution of fifty men, stated that two hundred and five more were taken in three different parties by the Government troops.

The remainder, with Lopez, at their head, who was wounded, fled to the mountains. The troops pursued them, and it was thought they were captured to a man.

The two hundred and fifty men taken were shot soon afterwards.

Still Later News. The only item of interest is the following telegraphic despatch relative to the Cuban expedition: Savannah, Sept. 1.

The schooner Merchant arrived here to day from Havana, bringing advices from that city to the 23d August, four days later than the advices by the Empire City at New Orleans.

The Merchant brings the important intelligence that Gen. Lopez has been successful in every engagement with the Spanish troops. Gen. Lopez was the 17th; Gen. Enna, Commander-in-chief of the Spanish forces, was killed, with several other officers and a large number of men. The force of Gen. Lopez was from 1500 to 2000 strong, and was daily receiving reinforcements.

Gen. Lopez was marching towards Havana. Gen. Enna was buried with great pomp in Havana, on the 30th August. Great excitement prevailed in Havana, and much apprehension was felt. There are now only about 700 troops remaining in the city. [The above despatch is from the columns of the Savannah News.]

EXTENSIVE FORGERIES. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 17.—There were considerable preparations created this morning on the announcement that Richd. W. McDowell, coal dealer, South Third street, and tax collector for Duick Ward, had slipped, leaving sundry relatives, friends and acquaintances sufferers, for sums varying from hundreds to thousands of dollars.

Besides being a defaulter to the city, McDowell, who has perpetrated forgeries amounting, as far as has been ascertained, to some $15,000. He is supposed to have either started for the West by way of Harrisburg or Baltimore, or gone directly to New York with the intention of getting off to California. Every effort will be made to overtake him. It is supposed he has lost heavily by gambling or speculation. His wife is in the deepest distress.

Here is one of the worst things the Boston Post has done within a week:—"The pangs of unrequited love made Mr. Hagar, the shoemaker, take position at Fort de Moin, where, as his end waxed near, he breathed his last, and pegged out."

The census-taker in the western part of Scioto county, Ohio, informs the editor of the Portsmouth Dispatch, that he visited a family in which the mother had recently given birth to her twentieth child! He says it was a slight weight baby, ranging from small to great, like the pipes of an organ.
