Mr. Bratton:

Dear Sir.—Notwithstanding all the reports you have heard in regard to our township, let me assure you Old Dickinson will be "right side up with care," on Tuesday. Mr. Woodburn, volunteer candidate for Associate Judge, will run well in this township, I am friendly to his election myself, and have been through a good portion of the township, and my opinion is that he will receive a very large majority of the Democratio votes. But, in regard to the read congressional Ticket, and a majority of the ticket, Dickinson will do her whole duty. Mr. Woodburn's friends will give Mr. Granast their united vote. Indeed, the whole ticket, with the exception of Mr. Ken, will receive the full Democratio vote of our township. Let who will say to the contrary, set what I tell you down for a certainty.

Yours Respectfully.

Federal Depravity!

SHIPPENBERG, October 7, 1851. FRIEND BRATTON—I ask a short space in your paper to inform the people of a disgraceful act perpretated by the Federalists of this place last Sabbath strening. Mr. Samuel Nevin's barn was fired by an incendiary, about 6 o'clock in the evening. During the time the people were at the five, some degraded Federalist placed the Daily American paper at the doors of many of our Democratic houses in the west ead of town. The papers were gathered up early on Monday morning. This indicates that the Federalists are protty well panic stricken, when they resort to electioneering on the holy Sabbath. If a Christian community countenances such conduct on the Sabbath day, who knows what our country will come to? There was a large package of those papers sent to this place for the purpose of distributing them when the people were at church, but the fire afforded them a better opportunity. The Federalists are resorting to every thing that is mean to gain the day; but I sincerely hope the people will denounce electioneering on the Sabbath, and a bean to 70 supports the federal candidate for Governor, and vote for honest Bill Bigler, who is a close observer of the Sabbath, and a man not given to dissipation.

NEWVILLE, Oct. 4, 1851.

DEAR BRATTON-The Newville District will described by the state of the s wonders this year. Our friends are quite active lately, and feel confident of gaining a big victory on Tuesday week. The Whigs are divided on the subject of Associate Judges. Kennedy, however, has a large majority in his favor.

Silver Spring Again Speaking!

At a meeting of the Bigler, Club of Silver Spring township, held at the public house of John Loy, it Kingstown, on Thursday evening last, the following utions were offered, and unanimously adopted:

resolutions were offered, and unanimously adopted;
WHEREAS, The Democracy of Silver Spring, now as herotofore, cheerfully cooperate with their fellowDemocrats of this Commonwealth, in their efforts to secure the election of men, who strictly adhers to Democratic measures, for the multal benefit of our Republican government. Therefore Resolved, That we will, in common with our democratic brethren of the county, support the whole Democratic County ticket. Never before had the Democracy of Cumberland county a better ticket, in every respect, placed before them. We predict its election, from top to bottom, notwithstanding the efforts of a mercenary and bribed press, and a test of the greatest good of the greatest number.

This is to inform my numerous filends that I have not declined nor will I decline under any circumstances. This is my determination.

Things to be Remembered! LET THE PEOPLE REMEMBER,

That the MURDER recently committed by the enemies of Law and Order, in Lancaster county, is one of the fruits of Gov. Johnston's resistance to the w passed by our Legislature.

LET THE PEOPLE REMEMBER.

That Gov. Johnston says he has got this law in his pocket, and will keep it there! and that his ex-ample of treating laws at if they had not been presed, makes the abelitionists and disunionists bold and in olent, and encourages them to riot, bloodshed and LET THE PEOPLE REMEMBER, That the State debt was actually reduced more under Shunk's administration than it has been under Johnston's, notwithstanding the Sinking Fund, and a loan of $400,000. And that the claim set up by Gov. Johnston and his organ, that he has paid any portion of the State debt, is downright fraud and imposition.

LET THE PEOPLE REMEMBER, That William F. Johnston now holds his office by the illegal and fraudulent votes which were polled in Schoylkill county in 1848.

LET THE PEOPLE REMEMBER, LET THE FEOTLE REMEMBER.

That the public Treasury at the City of Washington, has been robbed within the last two years of more money, by Whig Galphinisms, than would pay a liberal compensation to one thousand laboring men for two years' services; and remember that what has been done at Washington may be done at Harrisburg, unless you vote for honest and faithful Democrats, who sympathize with the mass of the People.

LET THE PEOPLE REMEMBER,
The meeting was organized by calling Prof.
R. K. BURNS, President of the Plainfield Academy, to the Chair, and appointing Philip Ziko-Graham, and R. C. Woods, Secretaries. That William F, Johnston voted for a bill appropriate the corporations, company and State works, and that Gov. Ritner, in his message, said that such economy delivers not Democracy, James William, and R. C. Woods, Secretaries. That veteran of Democracy, James William, and R. C. Woods, Secretaries. That the expenses of the Executive and the list of Vice Presidents.

The following excellent article from the Valley Spirit, in relation to our ticket is to the point:

Our advices from old mother Camberland are to the fleet that the Democratic Ticket, from the first man to the last, will be triumphantly elected, not withstanding the strong game the Federalists are playing to divide the honors of the election. This intelligence, which would have been gratifying to us under any circumstances, is made doubly gratifying by the fact that there are several gentlemen on the Democratic Ticket for whose success we feel a far more than ordinary interest.

JAMES H. GRAHAM, Esq., the candidate for President Judge, is a man whom any party might be proud to rank among its members. He has won for himself a highly honorable position at the Bar, and the most reckless of his opponents do not dare to say that he does not possess every needful qualification to adorn the Bench. His nomination was made unanimously by the Democracy of the three counties composing the District—a high and a richly deserved compliment. His opponent, Hon. Fred'k Watts, has "stooped to conquer," but we are grievously mistaken if he does not find in due time that he has stooped to pick up a defeat. He has come down from the proud eminence of a candid man, to flounder in the bog of political trickery. Knowing that the whig porty was powerless to elect him, he resorted to a coonish trick to catch Democratic voics. He proclaimed it through the public prints that his nice sense of propriety would not permit him to accept, what five other fully as good men as himself of each party had accepted, a partisan nomination for a judicial station. Are the Democracy of that District to be caught with such chaff as this? If this legal Mastedon and modern Elljah is really too pure to take a partizan nomination, it is high time he were taken off the bench and translated to heaven. This sinful world is not adding place for such a man. But does any one believe that Mr. Watts would not have taken a nomination if the District had been Whig? We by the entire Democracy than if he had not assumed his present disingencous attitude.

J. ELLIS BONHAM, Esq., heads the ticket for Assembly. He served in the last Legislature, and in our opinion was the ablest member of the branch to which he belonged. No man of his years in the State is better read in the political history of the country, and no man has a more correct understanding of our public selfairs. His views and feelings are all thoroughly Democratic, and he may be safely trusted to legislate for the people. Our friends in Cumberland country owe it not only to themselves, but to the Democracy of the whole State, to re-elect Mr. Bonham.

SAMIEL: MAPTIN the scales of Country of the same correling to Broadfors Corneling Samies.

SAMUEL MARTIN, the nomines for Clerk of SAMUEL MARTIN, the nomines for Clerk of the Courts, is another man for whom the Democratic party ought to give its strongest pull. He is a capital pénman and will make a most efficient officer. He clerked for a time under Capt. Goodyear, when that gentleman held the post of Recorder and Clerk, and was a favorite of all who had business with the Comman Henry Coffice.

HENRY S. RITTER, is just the man to give satisfaction in the Register's office. To exteem him, you need but to know him. He is one of the mest worthy mechanics of Carlisle, where he has worked out for himself a reputation that any man might be not for himself a reputation that any man might be not for himself a reputation that any man might be not for himself a reputation that any man might be not for himself a reputation that any man might be not for himself a reputation that any man might be not formal f

Democrate of Cumberland county? Of such mon as these is your ticket composed. If we will now, as once, a resident of old mother Cumberland, we would thake any reasonable personal sacrifice to promote their election. We would travel twenty miles in any kind of weather, and by any mode of conveyance, to east a vote for them. You have the power to elect your whole ticket, and we hope to be able to announce, at the proper time, that you have fixed it.

Look at This!

Resolved, That we have unlimited confidence in the shifty, integrity, and patriotism of our candidates, Bioliza and Clover, and will use our best efforts to secure for them, and for the Democracy of the old Keystone, the henor "not only of a decisive, but of a glorious victory."

Resolved, That nour judicial ticket, we recognize men of mighty intellect, true dignity, and unsurpassed in tegal attainments—men who will do bonor to our judiciary, by wisely and prudently discharging the bulligations and responsibilities that will devolve upon them.

Resolved, That we will cordially support, and does not be supported for very honorable effort to secure the election of the whole Democratic tleket, knowing it to be composed of men eminently qualified, and richly descrying of the support of every Democratic That William F.
