VOL. 38.

CARLISLE, PA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1851.

NO. 19.

Cumberland Valley Hotel,

N. E. Corner of East High and Bedford Streets, Carlisle, Pa.

THE subscriber, thankful for the favor heretofore bestowed upon him by a generous public, would respectfully inform his old friends and the travelling community generally, that he has again got under weigh, and is now prepared to accommodate all who may favor him with a call, in a superior manner and on the most reasonable terms.

His House, which is entirely new, is spacious, comfortable, and convenient; the rooms being airy, well ventilated, and well fitted up with good beds, &c. The house is situated in a pleasant and healthy neighborhood, and in a business part of the Borough.

His Table will always be supplied with the best the market can afford, and nothing will be left undone in this department of his establishment to make it acceptable to epicures.

His Bar will always contain an abundance of the best and choicest liquors; and

His Stables, which is new, commodious, and extensive, and capable of accommodating 40 head of horses, will always be attended by a careful and attentive Groom, thus rendering his house a desirable stopping place for drivers and travellers.

Nothing shall be omitted on his part to make his house a cheerful and pleasant temporary home to such as may favor him with their custom. Call and judge for yourselves.

Boarders taken by the week, month, or year.
