THE WORLD'S FAIR .- Last Saturday was intended to be the last, and we suppos it was the last day, of the great Industrial Exhibition at London. The result has been very profitable one to the English people. I is gratifying, however, to know that, small comparatively, as was the number of article exhibited by the United States, more and higher premiums were awarded them, in proportion, than fell to the lot of the exhibitors of any other country.

The death of Commodore Warrington of the U. S. Navy, is announced. He was a native of Virginia. He entered the navy on the 6th of January, 1800, and was commis sioned as a post captain on the 22d of Novem her. 1814. He was the third officer on the na val list. As the London Daily News remarks, "One of ANOTHER MURDER BY A BOY .- A boy named Bridgewater, aged 14 years, deliberately shot a slave belonging to Mrs. Mordeoni, in Henrico county, Va., on Saturday last, lodging 155 shot in his body. He died in a few hours. They had a quarrel. Cudlipp, the murderer at Richmond, is still at large, although the horse on which he escaped has been recovered.
